THOMAS HUBBUCK & SON,
WHITE LEAD, OIL, PAINT & VARNISH WORKS,
24, LIME STREET, LONDON.

HUBBUCK'S
PATENT WHITE ZINC PAINT.

By their process, which is patented, the Pure White Zinc Paint is cheaper in use than White Lead.

For internal and external Painting, HUBBUCK'S Zinc is the most durable and beautiful Paint, and does not stain or discolour with the London Atmosphere in the neighbourhood of Gas and Chemical Works. In all climates it is superior for the inside and outside of Houses, Iron Roofing, Ships, Light-houses, and Bridges.

Each Cask is Stamped "HUBBUCK LONDON PATENT."

HUBBUCK'S ANTI-CORROSIVE PAINTS,

The most valuable protection to iron roofs, bridges, piers, ships, and buildings exposed to tempestuous weather and scorching sun.

HUBBUCK'S ANTI-OXIDATION COMPOSITION,

For Coating Iron and Wood Ships' Bottoms: a preservative against fouling and corrosion. This composition is ready for immediate use, and obviates the waste of carrying unmixed Paints, Oils, Driers, &c. It is also applicable to all the purposes of other Paints.

HUBBUCK'S ANTI-INCORUSTATION BOILER COMPOSITION,

Throws down the deleterious matters in the water which form the incrustation, and does not in the smallest degree injure the iron plates, rivets, or brass fittings.

HUBBUCK'S PREPARED LIQUID PAINTS.

These Paints are packed in 1 lb, 2 lb, 3 lb, 7 lb, and 14 lb tins, and will be found of great advantage, being mixed ready for immediate use, no further preparation is needed. This prevents the waste of carrying stiff Paint, Oil, Turpentine, &c.

HUBBUCK'S PALE BOILED LINSEED OIL,

Being much purer and paler than raw linseed oil, is the only boiled oil that can be used for White and delicate coloured Paints. It dries quick and hard, never blisters, and is more durable.

HUBBUCK'S BINNACLE AND COLZA OILS

prepared expressly for Ships, Lights, Light-houses, &c.

HUBBUCK'S WHITE LEAD, COLOURS, OILS, AND VARNISHES

properly packed for Exportation.

HUBBUCK'S PAINTS, OILS, AND VARNISHES

Are the Best and therefore the Cheapest. Beware of counterfeits of their name and Trade Mark.

CAUTION.

Since the successful introduction of their Pale Boiled Linseed Oil, some dealers are selling colourable imitations as "Improved Boiled Oil," "Clear Boiled Oil," &c. These imitations are not to be depended on, and only cause disappointment and loss.

CONVICTION.

In April 1873, a Native Dealer at Hong-Kong was prosecuted and convicted of a fraudulent imitation of Hubbuck's Name and Mark, and of placing them on some spurious goods shipped from London.

PART I.

ERAS AND CYCLES.

The year of the Julian period 6594.

The year 5642 of the Jewish Era commences on September 24, 1881.

The year 1299 of the Mahomedan Era commences on November 23, 1881.

Ramadan (month of Abstinence observed by the Turks) commences on July 28, 1881.

The Hindoo year 1288 commences on April 12, 1881.

CHRONOLOGICAL CYCLES.

Golden Number.....	1	Dominical Letter	B
Epaet	30	Roman Indiction	9
Solar Cycle	14	Julian Period.....	6594

The Solar Cycle, or Cycle of the Sun, is a period of 28 years, in which all the varieties of the Dominical Letters will have happened, and they will return in the same order as they did 28 years before. This Cycle commenced nine years before the Birth of Christ.

The Lunar Cycle or Cycle of the Moon, commonly called the Golden Number, and sometimes the Metonic Cycle (from Meton, an Athenian, who invented it about 432 years before the Birth of Christ) is a revolution of 19 years; in which time, the conjunctions, oppositions, and other aspects of the Moon are within an hour and a half of being the same as they were on the same days of the months 19 years before. The prime, or Golden Number, is the number of years elapsed in this Cycle. At the Birth, the Golden Number was 2.

The Roman Indiction is a period of 15 years, used by the Romans for the time of taxing their provinces. Three years of this Cycle had elapsed at the Birth of Christ.

The Julian Period contains 7980 years, and arises by multiplying together 28, 19, and 15, being the Cycles of the Sun, Moon, and Indiction. This was also contrived as a period for chronological matters, and is assumed as a correct and fixed rule in calculation by all the Astronomers and Chronologers throughout the Christian world. Its beginning is supposed to have commenced 710 years before the usual date of the creation of the world, or 4714 before the commencement of the Christian Era.

Date

Day of the week

EXPLANATION.—Look for the year in the first part of the table, and opposite it will be found the Dominical letter. When there are two letters together, the first is for January and February, the second for the rest of the year. In a line with the month, in the second part of the table, find the Dominical letter of the year, and down the same column with the letter find the day of the week, when the figures on the left will give the days of the month. Thus for the Mondays in January 1867. Opposite 1867 in the first column is F in the fifth. In a line with January find F, and descend the column to "Mon."—On the left are 7, 14, 21, and 28, the required dates.

Day of the year corresponding to the last day of each month.

Jan.	Feb.	Mar.	April	May.	June.	July.	Aug.	Sept.	Oct.	Nov.	Dec.
31	59	90	120	151	181	212	243	273	304	334	365

To find the age of any given day of any month.—To the number corresponding to the preceding month in this table, add the day of the given month; the sum will give the age of the day. For example:—To find the age of the 14th day of August—Take from this table the age of the last day of July (212), and add 14—total 226. In a Leap Year add one day to the date of the month, if after February.

* The use of this Table is too obvious to require an explanation. — Observe that by reason of the Refraction, the Sun appears to be much higher than it really is so that if the rising and setting be reckoned from the time when the body of the Sun is quite above the Horizon, it will be nearest the truth.

Thirty days hath September,
 April, June and November,
 February has twenty-eight alone,
 And all the rest have thirty-one,
 (Except in leap year, at which time, February's days are twenty-nine.)

Every fourth year is called Leap-year, and consists of 366 days.—To ascertain if a given year is leap-year, divided it by 4, and if there be no remainder, it is leap-year; if there be a remainder, the number over shows how many years have elapsed since the last leap-year.

Rules observed at the Treasury for the calculation of anticipated Interest on New Loans and Interest generally.

Interest to be paid by the month: each month to be taken as one-twelfth of a year, and to consist of thirty days or parts.

2. In cases where it may be necessary to calculate interest on the fractional parts of a month of thirty-one days, the extra day is to be struck out.

3. Application of above Rule to a Loan on which the half-yearly interest falls due on the 31st December and 30th June of each year.

4. A person subscribing on the 27th October would be entitled to Anticipation Interest from 27th October to 30th December, for two months and three days, thus:

5. From 27th October to 26th December, for two months or two-twelfths of a year.

6. From 27th to 30th December, three days or three-thirtieths of one-twelfth.

7. A person subscribing to the Loan on the 29th December would be entitled only one day's Anticipation Interest, on the 30th he would not be entitled to pay.

8. A person subscribing to the three-and-a-half per cent. loan on any day in that month previous to the 28th February 1854, is entitled to interest from the day of subscription to the 27th February, both days inclusive, and for each day he will receive one-thirtieth of one-twelfth—thus: if he subscribes on the 3rd February, he will receive twenty-five-thirtieths, and if on the 1st February, twenty-seven-thirtieths, of a month's interest.

PART II.

GARDENING.

GARDENER'S CALENDAR.

JANUARY.

VEGETABLES.

From this month forward vegetables of every kind will need to be constantly watered, and, if once or twice a week with liquid manure, all the better.

Water Squashes every day copiously.

Make sowings of Radishes, Mustard, Cress, Spinach, and Lettuce for a succession. In the Upper Provinces Peas may also be sown during this month; but not in Bengal. Sowings of Celery may now be made for young plants to preserve through till the following cold season, if thought worth the while.

Put out young plants of Cabbage and Knol-Kohl to fill up vacant place in beds. Put out young Celery plants for succession.

Celery will now be in a condition fit for earthing up to blanch.

Keep a few plants of Lettuce, Mustard, and Cress for seed. Reserve one or two of the earliest formed heads of Artichoke for seed in Bengal: it is not necessary to do so in Upper India.

The plants should now be taken up for the manufacture of Tapioca and Arrowroot.

FRUITS.

Strawberries will now be blossoming and fruiting, and will require to be well watered, and nets or other means provided to protect them from birds.

Water Loquats copiously.

Fig-trees, Peaches, Plums, and Grape-vines should now be pruned.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

Commence giving surface dressings of fresh cow-manure to Roses.

Chrysanthemums will have done flowering, and should be taken out of their pots, pulled to pieces, and put out in a nursery-bed for a supply of new plants.

The following plants will be much benefitted by being well pruned in at this season:—

Allamandas.

Bignonias.

Hamelias.

Hibiscus mutabilis.

—rosa sinensis.

—Syriacus.

Ixoras.

Jasminums.

Jatropha pandurazfolia.

Lagerströminas.

Lantanas.

Malvaviscus arboreus

Mussaendas

Nyctanthus.

Quisqualis.

Tecomas.

FEBRUARY.

VEGETABLES.

Little can be done during this month in the cultivation of European vegetables, except copiously watering those that are already in the ground.

Sowings of Lettuce, Mustard, and Cress, may still be made.

To Peas that are reserved for seed, less and less water, if any should be given as they ripen.

FRUITS.

Water Loquats liberally, as well as Peach, Plum, Lichee and Mangoe trees, as soon as the fruit is set.

Earth up and water pine-apples.

Fertilise Vanilla flowers.

Sow seed of Water-melon.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

This is the best season for transferring such Orchids as require it to new pots or baskets.

Hoyas will be starting into growth, and should either have the soil in the old pots partially changed, or be potted afresh; they will now bear dividing, so as to make several plants out of one.

Re-pot or re-plant Caladiums, Arum pictum, Manettia cordifolia, Cyrtopera flava, Hibiscus Jerroldianus, Gloriosa superba, and all such-like plants, that have been lying dormant during the cold season, as well as the several species of Crinum, Globba, Panceratium, Alpinia, Hedychium Hippeastrum, and Kämpferia.

Put in the border Petunias, Phloxes, Salpiglossis.

Sow seeds of Poinciana, Tecoma, &c.

Pot off the choice kinds of Roses raised from cuttings laid down in November and keep them in the shade, well watered.

Roses now may be layerd with success.

MARCH.

VEGETABLES.

About the middle of this month remove the soil from the stools of Asparagus and cover them over again immediately with fresh soil, well enriched with old manure, and commence watering copiously.

Take up Carrots and Beet, and store them in pots of dry earth for future use.

Take up and store Onions.

At the beginning of this month, in the Upper Provinces, seeds of American Squash should be sown.

The stumps of Cabbages that have been cut should be allowed to remain, and be watered, as by their sprouts they will afford nice gatherings for the table for sometime to come.

Dry the leaves of English Sage and Thyme, and store in bottles.

Make sowings of Parsley in a shady place.

FRUITS.

Lichees will be ripening; cover the tree, betimes with nets, to save the fruit from birds.

Well water Peach, Plum, and Mango trees, and Grape-vines.

Fertilise Vanilla flowers.

Cut back closely all wood, of last year's growth, of Bâer trees.

This is the season both in Bengal and Upper India for sowing the seeds of fine kinds of Melons.

Thin out Plantains, remove the soil from the roots, fill in with fresh cow-manure, and water liberally.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

Withhold water from Dahlias, and when the stems have died down, take up the tubers and store them in pots of earth or sand in a dry godown.

Treat in the same way the several species of Oxalis.

Withhold water from Gloxinia maculata, Lillium longifolium, and Richadia Ethiopica, and when the stems and leaves have died down, remove the pots with the bulbs within them undisturbed, to some dry godown, till the time of re-potting in the following October. Other bulbous and tuberous-rooted plants of a similar description should, of course, receive similar treatment.

Cut well back the wood of last season's growth of shrubs, such as Poinsettia, Holmskioldia, Hamiltonia, Phlogacanthus, Aphelandra, Buddlea, Thumbergia, and Cassia alata, that have lately finished flowering.

Euphorbia jacquiniiflora should be treated in a similar way, and the cutting inserted in pots of sand kept in a sheltered place and well watered; they will afford a nice stock of new plants.

Take up the choicer kinds of Verbena to pot, and keep under shelter during the Rains.

APRIL.

VEGETABLES.

Little can be done now in the cultivation of vegetables.

Well water Asparagus.

Gather seed of Onion and Salsify.

Put Yams in the ground and construct trellis-work for them to trail upon.

FRUITS.

Water Melons unremittingly.

Keep Strawberry-plants watered while the Hot season last.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

The leaves of Gladiolus and some other bulbous plants will be dying down. The pots containing them should be removed to some dry place, where they may remain till the time for re-potting comes round again.

Achimenes, which at this time will be starting into growth, should be potted and well watered as soon as they appear above ground.

MAY.

VEGETABLES.

Asparagus will now be in season, and the beds must be kept most plentifully watered.

Lettuce may be raised in a shady place from acclimated seed. Beyond this there is nothing that can be done as regards European vegetables.

At the close of the month is the proper time for sowing most native vegetables; the several kinds of country Beans, Cucumbers and other Gourds; of Maize, Ochro, Brinjals, &c.

This is the period likewise for planting Ginger, Arrowroot, Jerusalem Artichoke, Kuchoo or Ghoyan, Sweet Potatoes, and the Tapioca plants.

FRUITS.

Continue to water Pine-apple.

This is the proper season for inarching and making gootees or layers of all the different kinds of fruit-trees.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

There is little to be done in this department besides watering abundantly young and choise plants.

JUNE.

VEGETABLES.

Maize and the ordinary country vegetables may still be sown. There is nothing that can be done as regards European vegetables.

FRUITS.

Seeds of Mangoe should now be sown for a supply of stocks for inarching upon.

The operations of gootee, layering, and inarching may still be carried on, and cutting laid down to strike.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

The slips of Chrysanthemum laid down in January will now have become large plants. They should be taken up from the nursery-bed and pulled apart; and each rooted slip be potted in a single pot, and those of the choicer kinds put under shelter before the heavy rains set in.

For potted plants, which are to be left exposed to the weather during the rains, bricks should be laid whereon the pots may rest out of access from worms.

At the end of this month cuttings of most tropical plants may be put down for striking.

As soon as the Rains have set in, examination should be made to ascertain where plants are liable to suffer from the lodgment of water around them, and the speediest means that can be devised be taken for draining it off.

JULY.

VEGETABLES.

During this month sowings of most native vegetables, such as Brinjals, Ochro Pulwuls, Cucumbers, and the different kinds of runner Beans and Gourds may be continued.

Arrowroot, Ginger, Turmeric, and Jerusalem Artichokes about this time will require earthing up.

FRUITS.

The crowns of Pine-apples, of a fine kind when wrenched off should not be thrown away, but inserted in pots of sand under shelter. If watered regularly, they will soon form beautiful healthy plants.

This is the best time for budding Peaches, Plums, and trees of the Orange and Lemon tribe.

Sow Indian Sorrel and Cape Gooseberry.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

At this season sow seeds of—

Amaranthus.	Ipomæa rubro-cærulea.	Quamoclit.
Calonyction.	Martynia diandra.	Sesamum.
Carthamus.	Nicandra physaloides.	Spilanthes oleracea.
Cockscombs.	Nicotiana.	Sunflowers.
Dahlia.	Pentapetes phœnicea.	Zinnia.
Datura.

On examining Dahlia tubers that have been stored away in pots of earth or sand it will very likely be found that they have begun to make shoots; if so, they should be potted immediately.

Gloxinia maculata will now require to be re-potted.

Now is the most favorable time for budding Roses.

This is the most successful season for striking cuttings of all tropical plants which can be propagated in that way.

Cuttings also of Rose Edouard, Devoniensis, and the China Roses will strike at this period.

AUGUST.VEGETABLES.

Sowings of Celery should now be made in pots, under shelter from Rains. The seed will be slow in germinating; but it is important that plant should be brought as forward as possible for planting out when the Rains are over in October.

At this time also Asparagus-seed should be sown, for a supply of plants to make new beds within October, if needed.

So the small kind of Tomato.

FRUITS.

It will be found that Peaches, Plums and the Orange and Lemon tribe, may now be budded successfully.

Cuttings also of the Orange tribe now laid down will strike readily.

The fruit of Guavas, Custard-apples and Pomegranates should be tied up in fine muslin, to protect them from the attacks of birds and vermin.

Now is the season for planting out suckers or offsets of Pineapples.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

Roses may be budded successfully during this month.

Stephanotis floribunda and many of the choicest tropical plants may now be propagated by cuttings in sand under glass.

SEPTEMBER.VEGETABLES.

Make sowings of Patna Pea.

Commence sowings of Cauliflower, Cabbage, Knel-Kohl, and Artichoke in pots under shelter, or on a raised piece of ground under a hoogia, in order to have plants well forward for putting out in the open ground as soon as the Rains are over.

FRUITS.

Peach-stones, sown now, will come up in February, and afford stocks for budding upon in August.

Prune away the lowermost leaves of Cocoa-nut trees.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

Sowings of German Aster, Heartsease, and Cineraria should be made this month. As these plants take a long time to mature for blossoming favorably.

At the beginning of this month sow Balsams.

Richardia Ethiopica and the several species of Oxalis will now be moving. They should be potted and brought to the light immediately they appear above ground.

This is the season for a general pruning of Rose-trees.

OCTOBER.VEGETABLES.

As soon as the Rains are well over, no time should be lost in preparing the ground and making sowings of Turnips, Carrots, Peas, Beans, French Beans, Lettuce, Tomato, Spinach, Endive, Salsify, Mustard, Cress, Radishes, Beet, Onions, and Leeks.

Sow in Bengal English Cucumber-seed and American Squash.

Put out in their places in the open ground young plants of Cauliflower, Cabbage, Knel-Kohl, Artichoke, and Asparagus.

FRUITS.

Now is the season for making up Strawberry-beds and putting in the plants. In the Upper Province gather Putwa, before it is injured by the cold.

Sow Seeds of—Almonds.

Avocado Pear.

Bencoolen Nut.

Cowa-mangosteen.

Custard-Apple.

Guava.

Hog-plum.

Khirnee.

Lichee.

Peaches.

Plums.

Pumplenose.

Strawberry.

Wámpee.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

About the middle of this month is the time for making sowings of all the English Annuals, either in pots or on a raised border under a hooga.

Pots containing bulbs of Lilium longifolium should be well soaked with water and about twelve hours afterwards, the soil being thus rendered perfectly loose, the bulbs should be carefully taken out and re-potted.

This is the best time for imported bulbs to arrive for potting, such as Hyacinth Anemone, Ranunculus, and the several kinds of Narcissus, Iris, Ixia, &c.

Re-pot

Aloysia citriodora.

Antirrhinum.

Carnations.

Centradenia.

Columbine.

Daisies.

Franciscsea.

Geraniums.

Geum.

Habrothamnus.

Heliotrope.

Hydrangea.

Iris.

Linum.

Lophospermum.

Pinks.

Plumbago rosea.

Scabius.

Sweetwilliam.

Verbenas.

Violet.

In Upper India repair the paths.

NOVEMBER.

VEGETABLES.

Make successive sowings of Peas, French-Beans, Turnips, Carrots, Radishes, Lettuce, Beet, Mustard, and Cress.

Thin out sometimes Turnips, Carrots, and Beet.

Make successive plantings of Cauliflowers, Cabbages, Knol-Kohl, Lettuce, and Celery.

Stick Peas before they begin to fall about.

Earth up Potatoes.

Yams are now fit to be taken up for use.

Plant out Onion-bulbs for obtaining a crop of seed from in April.

Take up Mint and plant it in a fresh soil, well enriched.

FRUITS.

By the end of this month it is well to lay open the roots of mangoes, and also of peaches, plums, and grape-vines, and to withhold water entirely, in order to accelerate the fall of the leaf and the ripening of the bearing wood.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

This is the best season for putting down cuttings of all kinds of Roses, and indeed of most exotics, natives of a colder climate.

The several species of Canua may now be dug up, parted, and planted in fresh ground.

DECEMBER.

VEGETABLES.

Make sowings of Radishes, Mustard, Cress, Lettuce, Pease, and French-Beans for succession.

Put out fresh plants of Knol-Kohl, Cabbage, Cauliflower, and Celery.

The most advanced crops of Celery will be now in a condition for earthing up to blanch previous to use.

Water well Celery, Squashes, Radishes, and Asparagus seedlings.

Withhold water from old Asparagus plants, that they may die down and go to rest.

FRUITS.

Gather Rosselle.

Well water Cape Gooseberries. In the North-West-Provinces the plants should be covered in at night during the cold months, or they will be much injured by the cold, and the fruit will not ripen.

Place seedling Bilimbis in a warm sheltered place during the cold months.

Prune Fig-trees, Peaches, and Grape-vines.

Towards the close of the month cover again the roots of fruit-trees that had been exposed, with fresh well-enriched soil.

ORNAMENTAL PLANTS.

Put down cuttings of Aloysia citriodora, Heliotrope, Geranium, Pinks, Carnations, Habrothamnus, and Verbenas.

Allow to dry down Arum pictum, Gesnera tubiflora, Sprekellia, the varieties of Caladium, and such-like potted bulbous plants.

In the North-West Provinces cover over at night, to protect from frost, young Heliotropes, Tropæolums, Canary Creeper, and seedling Menhdee plants.

Keep under the shelter of a warm verandah Ixora Javanica, Hoyas, and Vanilla plants, that are in pots.

Make succession sowings of such quick-growing things as Browallia, Linaria, Cuphea Mignonette, French Marigold, and Convolvulus Major.

German Asters, Cinerarias, and Pansies will require re-potting.

In the case of most Annuals the time for sowing the seed is when the rains are over, about the middle of October. In the Upper Provinces the sowing should take place as soon as the abatement of the heat will allow, in order that the seedlings may be well advanced before the weather sets in at its coldest, during which period they remain quite stationary, making little or no growth whatever. Nasturtiums, for instance, with the pretty Canary Creeper, must be sown in time to make a good growth before the frosty nights come, when they have to be carefully protected from the cold. If the sowing be deferred till the cold season is over, the plants will be killed by the approach of the Hot season before they have put forth a blossom.

In Bengal again there are certain of the Annuals which take the whole of the time that the cold weather lasts to complete their growth, and only come into blossoms just at its close. If the seeds of such kinds be not sown very early, it amounts almost to a certainty, that the plants will die without flowering. Among these in particular may be mentioned Cineraria, German Asters, Jacobæa and Salpiglossis.

Others on the other hand, blossom within a much shorter period; of such it is advisable always to reserve a portion of the seed for sowing in November. Among these may be mentioned more especially Nemophila and Larkspurs, the seed of which will not germinate till the weather has become quite cold, and when sown early is liable to be lost before germinating.

Sowing Annuals in pots is, no doubt, the more sure and economical plan; for in that case the seeds are comparatively safe from the ravages of ants, of all things the most to be guarded against.

It is essential that the soil used should be of a loose description, so that there be as little risk as possible of breaking the tender thread-like roots of the seedlings in the process of what is called "pricking out." No better compost can be used than that recommended by Mr. Koss for the purpose, consisting of—

Leaf mould	8 parts.
Common mould	8 parts.
Sand	1 part.

The seeds when sown should be covered with nothing more than a mere sprinkling of soil, pressed down upon them gently with the hand.

It is of the utmost importance that the seedlings should from the very first, have during the day, all the light and air that can possibly be given them short of absolute sun-shine, and at night, when the weather will admit, be put out in the open air to receive the dew.

The mode of raising Annuals, however, attended with least trouble is to select a small plot of ground just of sufficient size for the purpose; well dig it, and make it very light and mellow with vegetable mould, and perfectly level. Then divide it off into little compartments, and in each sow a different kind of seed, and affix a label. But a better plan yet, in my opinion, is to draw drills over the plot at the distance of half a foot between each drill, and so in them the different kinds of seed in succession. It is thus known exactly where to look for the seeds to come up; when up also they are far more easily transplanted from drills than when the seed has been sown broadcast. Still which ever plan is adopted, the whole plot must be sheltered from the sun during the day, and in bad weather at night, with a covering of hoogla, supported on a bamboo frame about three feet from the ground. About four-and-twenty hours previous the soil should be well drenched, so that at the time of sowing, without being wet and cloggy, it may be found moist and mellow.

"Annuals," says Sir J. Paxton, "with the exception of a few particular sorts all will derive great benefit from being transplanted. I will check the natural exuberance of their growth, and promote the production of flowers." "I am convinced," says Mr. McMeekin, head gardener formerly to the Agri-Horticultural Society, "that annuals in this country are improved by transplanting."

As a general rule for guidance in this matter, I have observed, with regard to all her baceous plants, as well as Annuals, that those which love a rich damp soil, such as Mimulus, Nemophila, German Aster, Cineraria, Balsams, &c., in no way suffer, but are rather benefited by transplantation ; while those plants the natural locality of which is a dry, arid soil, such as Lupins, Portulaca, poppy, Eschscholtzia, mignonette, &c. suffer severely and often irrecoverably from the process.

Seeds of Annuals, such as it has been stated suffer too great a check from being transplanted, may, especially when seed is plentiful, be very advantageously sown at once in the border on the spot where they are to remain.

The seed must not be cast merely on the hard, dry soil of the border, but a little mellow leaf-mould or old well-decayed cow-manure be mixed up with the soil on the spots where the sowings are to be made.

Annuals in the border require daily watering.

FERNS.

In my opinion nothing can surpass in beauty a choice assortment of these plants statefully arranged and in a healthy condition, and it seems strange that the ornamental glass Fern-cases, now so common in England, have not been introduced generally into the halls and drawing-rooms of Calcutta, to which they would be admirably adapted. "Ferns of many kinds," Mr. John Scott observes, "may be grown in Betle-houses, but for a general collection of tropical species glass structures are absolutely necessary, in order that their young and tender fronds may be shielded from the scorching influence of the atmosphere throughout the Hot season." There are notwithstanding several species which will thrive satisfactorily enough under the shade of a verandah among other potted plants, and it is by the contrast afforded by their foliage there that their beauty and grace can be more specially recognised perhaps than in any other situation. To confine them to Betle-houses, if intended for decoration, is unquestionably to sacrifice in a great measure the object for which they are grown.

The soil in which, according to my experience, Ferns thrive best is a mixture of cocoa-nut fibre and leaf-mould with sand. Mr. John Scott recommends a compost, one-half pieces of charcoal of about the size of a bean, and equal parts of vegetable mould, sand, and potsherds, and that repotting should be done in the cold season.

They are usually grown in pots. Place three or four large pieces of brick at the bottom of the pot, so as to fill it more than a third way up. Upon these lay the cocoa-nut fibre, scattering it over with leaf-mould as the pot is gradually filled to the top. The Fern may then be planted, and a few large pieces of brick should be laid on the surface of the soil to keep it fixed and steady. With few exceptions they may be multiplied easily by division.

Ferns may also be raised from seed. The plan perhaps best to be pursued is to fill a shallow pot with the materials and in the manner just described, finishing with a smooth layer of sandy leaf-mould within an inch of the top. Lower the pot into water to the rim, till the water, rising through the hole at the bottom of the pot, soaks the whole of the contents. Then take it out, scatter the spores lightly over the surface, and cover with a piece of glass. When the soil appears to be getting dry dip the pot again into water as before.

ORCHIDS.

For the successful cultivation of the larger part of this peculiar and delightful race of plants an atmosphere either naturally humid, or rendered so artificially, is absolutely essential. In the arid climate of the Upper Provinces it is hopeless to attempt to grow them, and even in the comparatively damp region of Bengal, their culture is attended with no more than what may be called partial success. The Khaessya Hills, Nepal, Assam, Java, and the locality of the Straits, are the native districts of large numbers, where the air is almost constantly saturated with moisture, and where they flourish in all their vigour and loveliness. In the locality of Calcutta there are a certain few only that can be cultivated with more satisfaction. Numbers, it is true, have from time to time been introduced and been seen to blossom beautifully ; but it would be difficult as well as useless to enumerate them, as they have been here but the one season and gone the next. More especially may this perhaps be said of many of the superb species from trepical America and the Brazils which have been imported of late years. These for the most part live in a lower temperature than they can obtain in this country ; and their cultivation with success is as yet uncertain.

The following directions for propagating them equally applicable here as elsewhere are given by Mr. B. S. William, in his work 'The Orchid Grower's Manual :—

"Some are easily increased by dividing them into pieces or by cutting the old pseudo-bulbs from the plants after the latter have done flowering. Such plants as Dendrobium are increased in this way. The best time for this is just as they begin to grow or when they are at rest. They should be cut through with a sharp knife between the pseudo-bulbs, being careful not to harm the roots. Each piece should have some roots attached to it. They should be parted and potted, and receive no water till they have begun to grow.

Dendrobium nobile, D. Pierardii, &c. are propagated :—

"1. By bending the old pseudo-bulbs round the basket or pot in which they are growing."

"2. By cutting old flowering-bulbs away from the plant ; laying them on damp moss, and when they make roots, potting.

Dendrobium Aggregatum, D. Densiflorum, and similar, are increased by dividing the roots.

Aerides : Vanda : Angroecum : Saccolabium : Revanthera.

"1. Cut off the top of the plant, just below the first root.

"2. Take young growth, from the bottom of the plant.

Epidendrum : Cymbidium : Celogyne : Cattleya : Blattia and many others.

"Divide into pieces with portions of the roots attached, and a young bulb on the pseudo-bulb.

The period of the year when the plants are at rest is the same here as in England, that is to say, from the beginning of November to the end of February. The close of this period is considered the fittest time for repotting them, — just as they begin to start into growth. Some, however, consider the month of June or July preferable for the purpose. Previous to potting, it is laid down as indispensable that they receive no water for a few days. They should be elevated somewhat above the level of the pot. The principal point to be attended to is that they be provided with thorough drainage, for it is said that "although the plants are fond of moisture they never thrive, except the water has a free passage through the pot." But in connection with this it must also be remembered that here when they are in the condition of most vigorous growth it is the driest period of the whole year. At this season, therefore, when they are most craving of moisture, frequent waterings must be given them, to counteract the perfect state of dryness to which such thorough drainage would soon reduce them. And herein indeed seems to consist the main difficulty in their cultivation — the making the drainage effectual, and the compensating by a seasonable fresh supply of water, for that which by evaporation and drainage is so soon withdrawn. The difficulty is removed of itself when the Hot season is over and the Rains have set in ; but then a difficulty of just the opposite tendency occurs. The plants now do not dry soon enough ; damp stagnates, and mouldiness and rot ensue. The remedy is obvious, — abundance of fresh air, and all the ventilation possible.

For watering Orchids, when the collection is large, a brass syringe, made for the purpose, is all but indispensable. They for the most part rest from growth during the two or three months of the Cold season, previous to which watering should be gradually more and more abstained from.

Different modes of growing them are adopted, suited to the peculiar habit of each. Some thrive best fastened with moss upon the bough of a tree or upon a log, some in open work baskets of wire or wood, and some few in pots.

When grown in pots, the system given by Sir J Paxton, as that adopted by Messrs. Rollinson, is as follows. —

"Take a pot somewhat smaller than the one in which the plant is to be placed. Turn it upside down in the bottom of the said pot. This tends to fill up the pot, and assists the drainage very much—a very important object, as these plants will not thrive at all if allowed to become saturated with water. Put large pieces of potsherds into the bottom of the pot, then above these smaller pieces, then a layer of peat, and potsherds in succession till the pot is filled. On these materials the plant is placed.

"It will be loose or ready to tumble over, if of such kinds as Cattleyas or Dendrobiums to prevent which, thrust into the compost some stout sticks; and tie each pseudo-bulb to each stick firmly. These will secure the plant, and give it a neat, tidy appearance.

When grown in suspended baskets, the materials with which the baskets are filled will be much the same as those employed in the system of potting above given. Peat, however, such as used in England, is not to be obtained in the plains of this country; therefore what comes nearest to it, leaf-mould, with which cocoa-nut fibre is well-intermixed, must be made use of in its place. Mr. John Scott informed me that the material he used was charcoal and cocoa-nut fibre exclusively with no crocks.

For many, lighter kind of material than the above mentioned should be employed, Acridos, Vanda, Saccolabium, Vanilla, Epidendrum nocturnum, and Lendrobium formosum, thrive better in moss than in soil.

THE ROSE.

Those who are really fond of "the Queen of flowers," and desire to possess a collection of the finest Roses, I most strongly recommend to procure them direct from England. There is no other way of obtaining them so cheaply or so satisfactorily. Most persons here who possess choice Roses seem anxious to keep them as much as possible exclusively to themselves; and the few choice ones which native dealers have at their disposal including the now not uncommon one Elise Sauvage, they sell at as much as four or five rupees a plant—more than twice the cost at which they can be imported.

It is generally supposed that the procuring of Roses from Europe is attended with considerable expense. This is a great mistake. "Dwarfs," by which are meant Roses on their own roots, as these are called that are raised from cuttings or layers, as well as those which are budded on the stocks beneath the soil, and "Dwarf-Standards," as these are called which are budded on stocks under two feet high, mostly cost a shilling each, and none except the very newest, that is, such as have been produced within the last two years, cost more than eighteen-pence. The cost of conveyance by Peninsular and Oriental Steamer of a package containing about fifty Roses is 2£ 14s. For case and packing the nurseryman charges 5s. There is no duty upon them. From these items, then, it will be seen that for sixty rupees (6£) a package of fifty of the finest Roses grown may be obtained.

The layering of many Roses may be performed at all seasons of the year, but with some few of the choicer kinds such as Glorie de Dijon, it will prove most successful in February.

Mr. Errington very kindly communicated to me the following happy method he has adopted for layering Roses. He plunges a pot filled with soil in the ground at the place where the layer is to be made, and layers the Rose in the usual way. This is done in February, shortly before the onset of season. He then places another pot upon the soil of the pot in which the layer has been made; half fills this upper pot with earth and keeps the remaining half always filled with water. The water slowly trickles down to the layer below and keeps it constantly moist. The layer is ready to be cut by the beginning of the rains.

The best season for lying down cuttings of Roses is undoubtedly in November. By March they become nice little rooted plants, and may then be taken up and potted off. Cuttings of vigorous and healthy growth from the Tea-Roses, Devoniensis and Elise Sauvage will I have found, strike readily if put down in July during the rains.

I am indebted likewise to Mr. Errington, Head Gardener of the Agri-Horticultural Society, for the following particulars respecting his mode of raising Roses from cuttings. To strike them in he uses a mixture of one part of fine charcoal to three of sand. One advantage of this mixture, he says, is that the cuttings when struck, will continue growing and thriving; but that when struck in sand alone, they must be removed and potted in soil, or they soon die. He always uses slips with heels of the old wood. He takes care to lay the heel of the slip against the side of the pot, but not the whole length of the slip. He says the mixture cannot be pressed too closely round the slips. He covers them with a bell-glass.

During one Cold season I made experiments on striking cutting of Roses in bottles of water. The ones I attempted were the delicate Tea-roses Devoniensis, Elise Sauvage, and Peel's Rose, and with each I met with complete success. The following I found the points essential to be attended to:

The water must be perfectly clean and pure, and changed frequently to keep it so. Not more than one or two slips must be put in the same bottle, or the water will become corrupt and the slips rot.

The slips must be of the youngest growth, foot-stems of a flower that has just blossomed and fallen off.

The bottles should be placed on the north side of the house, or behind some screen where they may have plenty of light without sunshine, and be sheltered from wind. An old box, without the lid, laid upon its side with the outer surface of the bottom facing the sun, serves admirably for putting the bottles in.

Small vials do not contain water enough; ten-ounce confectionery bottles should be used; tumblers will do, but are rather inconvenient.

It is exceedingly interesting to watch the cuttings gradually from their callus, as they will completely do in about three weeks and then some time after emit one or two white silvery fibrous roots. As soon as they do this they should be potted off at once.

The budding of Roses is performed with the greatest facility and success in the Upper Provinces, and by this method choice Roses may soon be multiplied there to any extent. The kind employed for a stock is the Rose Edouard, which grows there with great vigour, the bark yielding most freely to receive the bud.

The operation may be performed in March, but much better at any time during the months of July and August.

In Bengal, from the difficulty of finding a stock the bark of which will separate freely, from the wood, budding is seldom or never attempted; I have not the least doubt, however, that by a proper way of proceeding, budding may be resorted to there also as one of the most ready and satisfactory means of multiplying choice Roses.

When one has become possessed of buds of any valuable Rose an efficacious way of turning them to account would no doubt be, by sacrificing any common young Rose plant by cutting it completely down, removing the soil, and inserting the buds upon the stump or upon the root, the bark of which will always yield readily.

Grafting, or more properly inarching, is the practice that has been almost uniformly adopted in Bengal for the propagation of the choicer kinds of Roses,—in my opinion a very inferior mode of proceeding. The stocks employed for this purpose in the garden of the Agri-Horticultural Society are of the Rosa gigantea, and the China Rose Duc de Berri.

Roses, raised either from cuttings or layers, will come into full perfection of bearing by the second season after they have been planted out, particularly if they have received liberal treatment. They do not like a wet, undrained soil, and as little do they like a dry and arid one. It is therefore best to plant them in a gently raised bed, from which the superabundance of wet during the Rains may pass off; but as a situation of this kind subjects them to a greater degree of drought during the hot months, they must, at that season be, from time to time, liberally supplied with water.

General Jenkins, in his MS. notes gives the following plan:—"To make Roses blow every month: Have the roots taken up with plenty of earth before they are usually pruned and let them stand without water till they lose their leaves. The give just enough to keep them alive, and when you wish them to blow plant them in good mould. Pruned and watered a little they will blow in six weeks."

I can to some extent certify from my own experience to the efficacy of this plan. Roses love now and then an entirely new soil, and transplantation every year or two is the very best thing that can be done for them. When not transplanted, they should in October, after the Rains are over, have their roots laid bare by the removal of the earth for two or three weeks, and then covered in with new soil well enriched with old cow-manure.

Surface-dressing during the months of December and January I have found of prodigious benefit, making the plants break forth with wonderful vigour. Drawing the earth away from the stem, so as to form a circular ridge at a foot's distance around it, I throw into the shallow basin thus formed a basket of fresh cow-dung, and from a considerable height pour water upon it. The water thus passes into the soil as a thick liquid manure. A fresh quantity of cow-dung is applied at the interval of about a month.

When well-cultivated, Roses appear to me to thrive and blossom far more satisfactorily in the open ground than they do in pots. A common mode of cultivating Roses, and one of which the natives are very fond, is to grow them in ring-pots. These are earthen cylinders sixteen inches in diameter and two feet long let into the earth endwise about a foot deep, and filled with soil to within three inches of the rim. The method of the natives is to cut the Roses, planted in these completely down, to within two or three inches of the roots in October; a week or two later to remove the soil from the roots, and having left them exposed a few days, to fill in with a solution of oil-cake, of the consistency of thick mud, very offensive to the nose at the time. The plants under this treatment it is true blossom very beautifully a month or so afterwards, but it is a mode of cultivation that possibly would not suit every one's taste.

PLANTING, TRANSPLANTING, AND CUTTINGS.

PLANTING consists, for the most part, in transferring young shrubs or trees from the pots in which they have been growing, into the places in the open ground where they are permanently to remain. This with many plants of a robust nature may be done almost indifferently at any season. But the two seasons more especially suited for the operation are at the setting in of the Rains, and at the commencement of the Cold seasons. As a general rule it may be laid down that plants natives of this country are planted out most successfully just previous to their breaking for their summer growth, a little after the commencement of the Rains; while plants natives of a colder climate, and that are in the greatest vigour of growth during the Cold season as Roses, for instance, should be planted about October. Most plants of the former class may, however, be planted out in February, but in that case those of a less robust habit demand a vast deal of attention, both in sheltering them from the sun, and in keeping them well watered during the hot months.

The usual method with malees, if not looked after, when planting out a young shrub or fruit-tree, is to dig a hole in the ground only just large enough to receive the ball of earth in which the roots are contained; whereas the proper plan is to dig the hole as much as two feet in diameter, and a foot and a-half deep for moderate sized shrubs, and proportionately larger for those of a larger size and for fruit-trees. The soils that is taken out should be broken up somewhat small, and mixed with old stable refuse, decayed cow-dung, and rotten leaves, and then thrown into the hole again. If the ground be then drenched with water for a day or two previous, it will sink to the level at which it will remain, and the plant may be put down at once as its proper height without any fear of its crown becoming buried beneath the soil by subsequent sinking, as might otherwise happen. The plant should be copiously watered at the time, and for some little time afterwards, when the soil becomes dry.

TRANSPLANTING.—There are few things in which the mallee will manifest hi indolence more than when employed in transplanting. If not keenly watched, he will, to make easy work of it, begin digging round the plant almost close to the stem so that the ball of earth he has to take up be as small as possible, cutting through or tearing away all the large long roots that come in his way, rather than extracting them carefully out.

In lifting a plant great care, and often much patience, are required, so that the roots sustain the least possible injury. It will sometimes, however, unavoidably happen that the roots become so much broken or disturbed in the operation that the plant would suffer severely, if removed at once to the spot intended for it and immediately exposed to the sun and air. In such case it will be found advantageous to put it into as small a pot as will contain it, fill in the pot with soil, and well water it; then convey it to a darkened room and keep it there during the day, bring it out in the evening to remain in the open air and receive the benefit of the dew during the night. After a few days it may be left out in some well shaded spot during the whole day, and in no great length of time when its wounded roots have become healed, it will bear any amount of exposure. It may then be shifted from its pot and planted in the place where it is intended to remain. The worst it will have suffered will be the temporary shedding of its leaves merely.

CUTTINGS.—Some plants may be propagated by cuttings at nearly all times of the year, but the majority most successfully in the Rains. Some of our choicer plants, natives of a cold climate, and that are in vigorous growth only in the Cold season, cannot be multiplied by cuttings successfully except at that season.

Some cuttings strike so readily that it is almost immaterial how they are put into the ground. But most cuttings, it has been ascertained, strike more readily by being inserted slopingwise in the ground, than when they are planted upright. Indeed, it is well to lay them so slopingwise, that there submits no more than an inch high above the ground, and then earth up, and cover all but the two uppermost buds. The cuttings thus protected are not nearly so liable to become dried up and to perish as when almost their whole length is left exposed to the air.

The end of the cutting which is to be inserted in the soil, should be cut across with a clean cut just below a leaf bud. Some gardeners are of opinion that slips strike more readily than cuttings. A slip is a small shoot pulled off a plant at its point of junction with the stem bringing away with it a heel of wood and bark from the stem.

None of the leaves, or as few as possible, should be removed from the upper end of a cutting.

METHODS OF STRIKING AND SOIL. A large number of the plants kept for distribution in the gardens of the Agricultural Society are raised from cuttings laid down in common garden-soil during the Rains in an open situation without shelter either from sun or wet weather, and possibly a situation thus exposed to the full action of the atmosphere is the very best for them; for of all things most baneful to cuttings is that tendency in the earth to become sour, which occurs during the Rains in situations at all sheltered and secluded. The native nurserymen I have observed, to strike their cuttings make use of a mellow soapy description of clay seemingly the substratum thrown up in the cleaning of tanks. This appears to be singularly tenacious of wet and yet to have no tendency whatever to turn sour.

To propagate the choice kinds of plants, however, a more careful mode of proceeding must be adopted.

Fill small pots with sand, place the cuttings close around the inside of them, sink the pots to the rim in the bed of sand, and cover them with bell-glasses. When the cuttings are struck the pots may be taken out and other pots with fresh cuttings fitted into their places. In this way when the cuttings are removed, the bed of sand is not disturbed, as it would be were pots not employed. Moreover, it is maintained cuttings strike far more readily by being laid in contact with the sides of the pots.

The sinking of the pots to the rim I consider of great importance; as one point essential to success in striking cuttings is that the soil in which they are inserted should, if anything, be of a somewhat higher temperature than the surrounding atmosphere. Whereas if the pots be left above ground, the evaporation that takes place through their porous sides must necessarily much reduce the temperature of the soil within them and so be very prejudicial to the cuttings.

Mr. Errington Head-Gardener of the Agri-Horticultural Society, informed me that of some thousands of cuttings, he put down one year in pure sand, most succeeded; but that on the following year nearly all that he so put down, failed. He therefore had adopted the material employed in the Botanical Gardens, which he said uniformly proved efficacious; that is to say, three parts of sand to one of fine charcoal. This then, in all cases will be the material safest to use. Notwithstanding, I fancy in the instance where Mr. Errington failed with sand only, the sand was not pure: as, in fact, it hardly ever can be when used just in the condition in which it is brought from the bed of the river. And the greater or less degree of impure matter incorporated in the sand may make all the difference in the cuttings for which it is employed: not succeeding in one case, and succeeding in the other. I have myself on occasions well washed the sand; and it needs only to do so to find out how far from pure it is; but this is a very troublesome operation, which the admixture of a little charcoal renders needless as it is the nature of charcoal to correct all impurity.

1.] The striking of cutting in water—Dr. Lindley says, in an old practice and quotes a communication to the 'Gardeners' Chronicle,' to show the manner of it:—

"I tie vial-bottles by the necks and hang them in the windows of our small green-house, having filled them with clean soft water. I then put in slips of Salvia Calceolaria, Memorus, Myrtle or any thing I wish to propagate of the same description of plant; in about two or three weeks or a month, the little silver-like roots appear, and in a week or ten days I plant them in small pots well watered; they never seem to flag, or mind the change, and I rarely lose a slip."

I have myself practised this method during the cold season with Verbenas, Habrothamnus, Salvia splendens and Roses, and found no method more successful or less troublesome. The points to be attended to as most conducive to success I conclude to be the following:—

1. That the cuttings be the summits of the youngest shoot, in a state of vigorous growth at the time.

2. That capacious bottles be used, so that there be less likelihood of the water becoming foul.

3. That the water be changed often to ensure its being quite pure.

4. That when changed it be tepid, so as to afford, in some degree, the bottom heat so essential for the speedy formation of a callos.

5. That the cuttings be sheltered from wind and sun, but otherwise have all the light and air possible.

6. That they be removed out of the cold air into the house at night; and, if the bottles be plunged half-way up in a tepid bath, probably so much the better.

2.] I subjoin a few remarks by Miss Maling on the striking of cutting in sand and water:—Heliotropes, Verbenas, Lobelias and Begonias do most beautifully, as do any of the very young soft shoots, when planted in pans of silver-sand soaked and over-flowed with a little sheet of water. Many hard-wooded plants, even hard to strike by other means, will grow in this way well.

"The shoots taken off as short as possible, and as fresh, and having only the lowest leave slipped off, if necessary, near the stalk (not close to it) may be stuck in all over, and if put in a warm and sheltered place, as over a greenhouse-stove, will grow most rapidly and make the most charming bunches of little fibry roots. These things will often strike even in small bottles of rain-water, the convenience of which is that they take up so little room. Previously to drawing out the little plants, it is well to soak the sand thoroughly, to avoid tearing the rootlets. The cuttings raised in sand must, as a rule, have their roots filled in with sand, when they are first removed."

3] The method of propagating by eyes or buds is simply to take a plump shoot of the season, on which the leaves are healthy and the buds not yet started. About half an inch or less above and below a bud, cut the shoot slopingwise into the wood so that the cut each way may meet just about a quarter of an inch behind the bud. The piece of the shoot with the bud upon it just as it is, is planted firmly in a pan of sand with the point of the bud just visible above the surface. It is essential that the bud have a leaf attached to it, which should not be taken off. The sand is kept moistened and the pan covered with a pane of glass. This is a practice that has long been employed in England in raising plants of the Orange tribe, and has proved equally successful with Camellias and Roses.

4] Propagation by layering though, generally speaking a slower process than by cuttings, is a much surer one for there are few plants which when in a thriving condition cannot be multiplied by this method. It is obvious, moreover, that larger and more advanced plants may be obtained by layers than by cuttings.

The operation is as follows: select a branch of ripened wood of the plant to be layered that will be a being bent down to the earth without breaking. Cut the branch half through with a sharp knife just under one of the leaf buds towards its extremity, and then pass the knife upwards so as to slit the branch about an inch or two up. The slit-piece with the leaf bud at its extremity called the "tongue" should be kept open by inserting a small piece of tile. Remove the earth of the depth of two or three inches from a place in a flowerpot over, the spot just where the tongue falls, on the branch being bent down then carefully bend the tongued part of the branch into the earth, or into the flowerpot, secure it in that position by a peg and cover it over with earth which should be pressed down and watered. It is recommended to bend down the branch when favored, but this is not always done. If the layer is put down in the month of February or March it is very essential that the soil be frequently watered and never allowed to become dry and hard. What Mr. Rivers enjoins with regard to the layering of Roses may, no doubt, be considered applicable to all layered plants.

Give the tongue at the upper part of the shoot so as not to be in the part which forms the bow, as it is of consequence that it should be within two inches of the surface, so as to feel the effects of the atmospheric heat. Unless this is attended to, the roots will not be emitted quickly.

A modification of the above process I have found attended with great success in layering some kinds of Roses and other plants the boughs of which are too rigid to be bent down —

Procure a flowerpot which has had part of its side broken out make a tongue in the branch to be layered, as before directed. Raise the flowerpot up so that the branch passing through the broken side may have its tongued part just about two inches below the level of the soil, when the pot is filled in. Keep the flowerpot permanently in this position by some support placed beneath it. Insert a piece of tile in the pot where the side is broken away, and then fill in with a mellow soil composed of leaf mould and sand which must be kept constantly moist.

5] The mode of propagation by Graft is thus described by Mr. Masters, formerly head gardener in the Calcutta Botanical Garden —

"Select a firm healthy," branch, the wood of which is well ripened; and immediately under a leaf bud take off a small ring of bark, about one inch wide. Scrape the woody part well, so that no bark remains. Apply a ball of well tempered clay, bind it on securely with tow or other soft budge, make it fast to a stake, if necessary, hang a small pot, having a hole in the bottom, just over the Graft, supply it with water daily. In a few months you will obtained a fine rooted plant.

"As the fibres are emitted from the buds that are above the wound, they will descend into the ball of earth and form roots. As soon as they are seen protruding themselves through the budge, the branch may be cut off from the parent-tree and planted where it is intended that it should remain. This appears to be the most expeditious method of obtaining strong well-rooted plants, and, at the same time, is a sure method of procuring duplicates of any desirable variety. Of sixty-five Gooties, made in June, of the Jonesia Asoca, the whole were well-rooted in October; while of forty-layers made at the same time, and on the same individual tree, none were well rooted and some only just beginning to form. The Liches requires four months to form good roots."

6.] The operation of inarching is commonly called grafting here, and is always substituted for it, being performed with far greater certainty of success; but, except for Mangoes, Sapotas, and in Bengal Peach trees, there is not often need to resort to it. Some of the choicer kinds of Roses, it is true, are frequently inarched; but with due care more thriving plants may be procured by means of cuttings, or layers, if not by budding. The process is performed thus: Procure a seedling, of about one or two years old, of the plant to be inarched, or where a seedling is not to be obtained, a rooted cutting of the same age, of the plant that is to supply the stock. Put it in a pot, and when it is well established it will be ready to be operated upon. Slice away from one side of the young stem a piece of bark, with a thin layer of the wood beneath it, about two inches long; do the same to a young stem of the plant to be inarched from, and then bring together the two stems that have thus been operated upon so that the cut parts lie close in contact face to face, and bandage them with cotton twist. In course of time, when the parts have united, head down the stock and sever the scion from the parent plant by cutting it through below the bandage. The grafted plant must then be put somewhere in a shaded place and not removed from its pot till it has made a vigorous growth, and stock and scion have become thoroughly incorporated.

21. Where an instrument is chargeable with ad-valorem duty in respect of any stock or of any marketable security, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such stock or security according to the average price thereof on the day of the date of the instrument.

22. Where an instrument contains a statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, as the case may require, and is stamped in accordance with such statement, it shall, so far as regards the subject-matter of such statement, be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be duly stamped.

23. Where interest is expressly made payable by the terms of an instrument, such instrument shall not be chargeable with duty higher than that with which it would have been chargeable had no mention of interest been made therein.

24. Where any property is transferred to any person in consideration, wholly or in part of any debt due to him, or subject either certainly or contingently to the payment or transfer of any money or stock, whether being or constituting a charge or incumbrance upon the property or not, such debt, money, or stock, is to be deemed the whole or part, as the case may be, of the consideration in respect whereof the transfer is chargeable with ad valorem duty.

25. Where an instrument is executed to secure the payment of an annuity, or other sum payable periodically, or where the consideration for a conveyance is an annuity or other sum payable periodically, the amount secured by such instrument, or the consideration for such conveyance (as the case may be), shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be—

- (a) Where the sum is payable for a definite period so that the total amount to be paid can be previously ascertained—such total amount;
- (b) Where the sum is payable in perpetuity or for an indefinite time not terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance—the total amount which, according to the terms of such instrument or conveyance, will or may be payable during the period of twenty years next after the date of such instrument or conveyance; and

26. Where the amount or value or the subject-matter of any instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty cannot be, or (in the case of an instrument executed before this Act comes into force) could not have been, ascertained, at the date of its execution or first execution, nothing shall be claimable under such instrument more than the highest amount or value for which, if stated in an instrument of the same description, the stamp actually used would, at the date of such execution, have been sufficient.

27. The consideration (if any) and all other facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of any instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, shall be fully and truly set forth therein.

28. (a) Where any property has been contracted to be sold for one consideration for the whole, and is conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts by different instruments, the consideration shall be apportioned in such manner as the parties think fit, so that a distinct consideration for each separate part is set forth in the conveyance relating thereto, and such conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of such distinct consideration.

(b) Where property contracted to be purchased for one consideration for the whole, by two or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others is conveyed in parts by separate instruments to the persons by or for whom the same was purchased, for distinct parts of the consideration, the conveyance of each separate part shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the distinct part of the consideration therein specified.

(c.) Where a person having contracted for the purchase of any property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the same to any other person, and the property is in consequence conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser, the conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration for the sale by the original purchaser to the sub-purchaser.

(d.) Where a person having contracted for the purchase of any property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the whole, or any part thereof, to any other person or persons, and the property is in consequence conveyed by the original seller to different persons in parts, the conveyance of each part sold to a sub-purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the consideration paid by such sub-purchaser, without regard to the amount or value of the original consideration, and the conveyance of the residue (if any) of such property to the original purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the excess of the original consideration over the aggregate of the consideration paid by the sub-purchasers :

Provided that the duty on such last-mentioned conveyance shall in no case be less than one rupee.

(e.) Where a sub-purchaser takes an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration paid by him, and is duly stamped accordingly, any conveyance to be afterwards made to him of the same property by the original seller shall be chargeable with a duty equal to that which would be chargeable on a conveyance for the consideration obtained by such original seller ; or where such duty would exceed five rupees, with a duty of 5 rupees.

E.—Duty by whom payable.

29. In the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the expense of providing the proper stamp shall be borne—

(a) in the case of any instrument described in numbers 2, 11, 13, 14, 15, 24, 28, 29, 30, 44, 53, 54, 55, 57, and 60 (a) and (b) of the first schedule—by the person drawing, making, or executing such instrument :

(g) in the case of a certificate of sale—by the purchaser of the property to which such certificate relates.

ADJUDICATION AS TO STAMPS.

30. When any instrument, whether executed or not, and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and the person bringing it applies to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty (if any) with which it is chargeable, and pays a fee of such amount (not exceeding five rupees and not less than eight annas) as the Collector may in each case direct, the Collector shall determine the duty (if any) with which, in his judgment, the instrument is chargeable :

and may, for that purpose, require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence have been furnished accordingly :

Provided that no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an enquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable : and every person by whom any such evidence is furnished shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable be relieved from any penalty he may have incurred under this Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

31. When an instrument brought to the Collector under section 30 is, in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and

(a) the Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or

(b) the duty determined by the Collector under section 30, or such a sum as, with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty so determined, has been paid, the Collector shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty (stating the amount) with which it is chargeable has been paid ;

When such instrument is, in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify in manner aforesaid that such instrument is not so chargeable.

Any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under this section shall be deemed to be duly stamped, or not chargeable with duty, as the case may be ; and, if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped :

Nothing in this section shall authorize the Collector to endorse—any instrument executed or first executed in British India, and brought to him after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution or first execution (as the case may be);

any instrument executed or first executed out of British India, and brought to him after the expiration of three months after it has been first received in British India; or any instrument chargeable with the duty of one anna, or any bill of exchange or promissory note, when brought to him after the drawing or execution thereof on paper not duly stamped.

32. Every payment of a fee under section 30 shall be made in stamps, or cash, as the Governor General in Council may by rule direct.

INSTRUMENTS NOT DULY STAMPED.

33. Every person having, by law or consent of parties, authority to receive evidence, and every person in charge of a public office, except an officer of police, before whom any instrument chargeable, in his opinion, with duty, is produced or comes, in the performance of his functions, shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same.

For that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable, and so produced or coming before him, in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law in force in British India when such instrument was executed or first executed:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate or Judge of a Criminal Court to examine or impound any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under chapter forty or chapter forty-one of the Code of Criminal Procedure, or chapter eighteen of the 'Presidency Magistrates' Act:

Provided also that, in the case of a Judge of a High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court appoints in this behalf.

The local Government may from time to time, in cases of doubt, determine who shall be deemed to be, for the purpose of this section, persons in charge of public offices.

34. No instrument chargeable with duty shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having, by law or consent of parties, authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is duly stamped:

Provided that—

1st, any such instrument, not being an instrument chargeable with a duty of one anna only, or a bill of exchange or promissory note, shall, subject to all just exceptions, be admitted in evidence on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, or (in the case of an instrument insufficiently stamped) of the amount required to make up such duty, together with a penalty of five rupees, or when ten times the amount of the proper duty or deficient portion thereof exceeds five rupees of a sum equal to ten times such duty or portion;

2nd, nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in any proceeding in a Criminal Court other than a proceeding under chapter forty, or chapter forty-one of the Code of Criminal Procedure, or chapter eighteen of the 'Presidency Magistrates' Act;

3rd, when an instrument has been admitted in evidence, such admission shall not, except as provided in section 50, be called in question at any stage of the same suit or proceeding on the ground that the instrument has not been duly stamped.

35. When the person impounding an instrument under section 33 has by law or consent of parties, authority to receive evidence, and admits such instrument in evidence upon payment of a penalty as provided by section 34, he shall send to the Collector an authenticated copy of such instrument, together with a certificate in writing stating the amount of the duty and penalty levied in respect thereof, and shall send such amount to the Collector, or to such person as he may appoint in this behalf.

In every other case, the person so impounding an instrument shall send it in original to the Collector.

36. When a copy of an instrument is sent to a Collector under the first paragraph of section 35, he may, if he thinks fit, upon application made to him in this behalf, refund any portion of the penalty in excess of five rupees which has been paid in respect of such instrument, or when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 12 or section 13, he may refund the whole penalty so paid.

37. When the Collector impounds any instrument under section 33, or receives any instrument sent to him under the second clause of section 35, he shall adopt the following procedure :—

(a.) If he is of opinion that such instrument is duly stamped, or is not chargeable with duty, he shall certify, by endorsement thereon, that it is duly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable (as the case may be), and shall, upon application made to him in this behalf deliver such instrument to the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the officer impounding it, or as such person may direct.

(b.) If the Collector is of opinion that such instrument is chargeable with duty, and is not duly stamped, he shall require the payment of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, together with a penalty, of five rupees; or it ten times the amount of the proper duty or of the deficient portion thereof exceeds 5 rupees, then, such penalty, not less than five rupees and not more than ten times the amount of such duty or portion as he thinks fit :

Provided that, when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 12 or section 13, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, remit the whole penalty prescribed by this section.

Every certificate under clause (a) of this section shall, for the purpose of this Act, be conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

Nothing in this section applies to an instrument chargeable with a duty of one anna only or to a bill of exchange or promissory note.

38. If any instrument chargeable with duty, and which is not duly stamped, is produced by any person of his own motion before the Collector within one year from the date of its execution or first execution, and such person brings to the notice of the Collector the fact that such instrument is not duly stamped, and offers to pay to the Collector the amount of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, and the Collector is satisfied that the omission to duly stamp such instrument has been occasioned by accident, mistake, or urgent necessity, he may, instead of proceeding under section 33 and 37, receive such amount, and proceed as next hereinafter prescribed.

Nothing in this section applies to an instrument chargeable with a duty of one anna only, or to a bill of exchange or promissory note.

39. When the duty and penalty (if any) leviable in respect of any instrument have been paid under section 34, section 37, or section 38, the person admitting such instrument in evidence, or the Collector (as the case may be), shall certify, by endorsement thereon, that the proper duty, or (as the case may be) the proper duty and penalty (stating the amount of each), have been levied in respect thereof, and the name and residence of the person paying them.

Every instrument so endorsed shall thereupon be admissible in evidence, and may be registered and acted upon and authenticated as if it had been duly stamped, and shall be delivered on his application in this behalf to the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the officer impounding it, or as such person may direct :

Provided that no instrument which has been admitted in evidence upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 34 shall be so delivered before the expiration of one month from the date of such impounding, or if the Collector has certified that its further detention is necessary and has not cancelled such certificate :

Provided also that nothing in this section shall affect the Code of Civil Procedure, section 144, clause 3.

40. The payment of a penalty under this chapter in respect of an instrument shall not bar the prosecution of any person who appears to have committed an offence against the stamp-law in respect of such instrument :

But no such prosecution shall be instituted in the case of any instrument in respect of which such a penalty has been paid, unless it appears to the Collector that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty.

41. When any duty or penalty has been paid, under section 34, section 37, or section 38, by any person in respect of an instrument, and by agreement, or under the provisions of section 29 or any other enactment in force at the time such instrument was executed, some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, the first-mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty or penalty so paid; and for the purpose of such recovery any certificate granted in respect of such instrument under section 39 shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein certified.

42. When any penalty is paid under section 34 and 37, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, upon application in writing made within one year from the date of the payment, refund such penalty wholly or in part.

43. If any instrument sent to a Collector under the second paragraph of section 35 be lost, destroyed, or damaged during transmission, the person sending the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction, or damage.

When any instrument is about to be so sent, the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the persons impounding the same may require a copy thereof to be made at the expense of such first-mentioned person, and authenticated by the person impounding such instrument.

44. When any bill of exchange or promissory note chargeable with the duty of one anna, or any cheque, is presented for payment unstamped, the person to whom it is so presented may affix thereto the necessary adhesive stamp, and, upon cancelling the same in manner hereinbefore provided, may pay the sum payable upon such bill, note, or cheque, and may charge the duty against the person who ought to have paid the same, or deduct it from the sum payable as aforesaid, and such bill, note, or cheque shall, so far as respects the duty, be deemed good and valid.

But nothing herein contained shall relieve any person from any penalty he may have incurred in relation to such bill, note or cheque.

REFERENCE AND REVISION.

45. If any Collector acting under section 30, section 37, or section 38, feels doubt as to the amount of duty with which any instrument is chargeable, he may draw up a statement of the case, and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and such authority shall consider the case and send a copy of its decision to the Collector, and he shall proceed to assess and charge the duty (if any) in conformity with such decision.

46. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may state any case referred to it under section 45 or otherwise coming to its notice, and refer such case with its own opinion thereon, if the case arises in the territories for the time being administered by the Governor of Fort Saint George in Council or the Governor of Bombay in Council—to the High Court of Judicature at Madras or Bombay, as the case may be: if it arises in the North-Western Provinces or Oudh—to the High Court of Judicature for the North-Western Provinces: if it arises in the territories for the time being administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab—to the Chief Court of the Punjab; if it arises in the Central Provinces—to the High Court of Judicature at Bombay; and if it arises in any other part of British India—to the High Court of Judicature at Fort William.

Every such case shall be decided by not less than three Judges of the High Court or Chief Court to which it is referred, and in case of difference the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

47. If the High Court or Chief Court is not satisfied that the statements contained in the case are sufficient to enable it to determine the questions raised thereby, the Court may refer the case back to the Revenue Authority by which it was stated, to make such additions thereto or alterations therein as the Court may direct in that behalf.

48. The High Court or Chief Court, upon the hearing of any such case, shall, decide the questions raised thereby, and shall deliver its judgment thereon, containing the grounds on which such decision is founded: and it shall send to the Revenue Authority by which the case was stated, a copy of such judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar, and the Revenue Authority shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

49. If any Court other than a Court mentioned in section 46 feels doubt as to the amount of duty to be paid in respect of any instrument under the first proviso to section 34, the Judge may draw up a statement of the case, and refer it with his own opinion thereon for the decision of the High Court or Chief Court to which, if he were the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, he would, under section 46, refer the same, and such Court shall deal with the case as if it had been referred under section 46, and send a copy of its judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar to the Judge making the reference, who shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

References made under this section, when made by a Court subordinate to a District Court, shall be made through the District Court, and, when made by any subordinate Revenue Court shall be made through the Court immediately superior.

50. When any Court in the exercise of civil or revenue jurisdiction makes any order admitting any instrument in evidence as duly stamped or as not requiring a stamp, or upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 34, the Court to which appeals lie from, or references are made by, such first-mentioned Court, may, of its own motion, or on the application of the Collector, take such order into consideration; and if it is of opinion that such instrument should not have been admitted in evidence without the payment of duty and penalty under section 34, or without the payment of a higher duty and penalty than those paid, may record a declaration to that effect, and determine the amount of duty with which such instrument is chargeable, and may require any person in whose possession or power such instrument then is to produce the same, and may impound the same when produced.

When any declaration has been recorded under this section, the Court recording the same shall send a copy thereof to the Collector, and, where the instrument to which it relates has been impounded or is otherwise in the possession of such Court, shall also send him such instrument; and thereupon the Collector may, notwithstanding anything contained in the order admitting such instrument in evidence, or in any certificate granted under section 39, or in section 40, prosecute any person for any offence against the stamp law which the Collector considers him to have committed in respect of such instrument:

Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted where the amount (including duty and penalty) which, according to the determination of such Court, was payable in respect of the instrument under section 34, is paid to the Collector, unless he thinks that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty:

Provided also that, except for the purposes of such prosecution, no declaration made under this section shall affect the validity of any order admitting any instrument in evidence, or of any certificate granted under section 39.

ALLOWANCES FOR SPOILED STAMPS AND STAMPS NO LONGER REQUIRED.

51. Subject to such rules as may be made by the Governor-General in Council as to the evidence which the Collector may require, allowance shall be made by the Collector for impressed stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned, namely:—

(a.) The stamp on any paper inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended, before any instrument written thereon is executed by any person:

(b.) The stamp used or intended to be used for any bill of exchange, cheque or promissory note, signed by or on behalf of the drawer or intended drawer, but not delivered out of his hands to the payee, or intended payee, or any person on his behalf or deposited with any person as a security for the payment of money, or in any way negotiated, issued, or put in circulation, or made use of in any other manner, and which being a bill of exchange or cheque, has not been accepted by the drawee, and provided that the paper on which any such stamp is impressed does not bear any signature intended as or for the acceptance of any bill of exchange or cheque to be afterwards written thereon:

(c.) The stamp used or intended to be used for any bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note, signed by or on behalf of the drawer thereof, but which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless, although the same, being a bill of exchange or cheque, may have been presented for acceptance, or accepted or endorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee; provided that another completed and duly stamped bill of exchange, cheque, or promissory note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of such omission or error as aforesaid, with the spoiled bill, cheque, or note:

(d.) The stamp used for any of the following instruments, that is to say—

(2) an instrument executed by any person, but afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended:

(3) an instrument executed by any party thereto, but which, by reason of the death of any person, by whom it is necessary that it should be executed, without having executed the same, or of the refusal of any such person to execute the same, or to advance any money intended to be thereby secured, cannot be completed so as to affect the intended transaction in the form proposed :

- (4) an instrument executed by any party thereto, which, for want of the execution thereof by some material party, and his inability or refusal to sign the same, is, in fact, incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended :
- (5) an instrument executed by any party thereto, which, by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or by the refusal or non-acceptance of any office thereby granted, totally fails of the intended purpose :
- (6) an instrument executed by any party thereto, which becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby affected being effected by some other instrument duly stamped :
- (7) an instrument executed by any party thereto, which is inadvertently and undersignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped :

Provided that, in the case of an executed instrument—

(a) such instrument is given up to be cancelled :

(b) the application for relief is made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, except where, from unavoidable circumstances, any instrument for which another instrument has been substituted cannot be given up to be cancelled within the aforesaid period, and in that case within six months after the date or execution of the substituted instrument, and except where the spoiled instrument has been sent out of British India, and in that case within six months after it has been received back in British India :

Provided also that, in the case of stamped paper not having any executed instrument written thereon, the application for relief is made within six months after the stamp has been spoiled as aforesaid.

52. When any person has inadvertently used, for an instrument chargeable with duty, a stamp of a description other than that prescribed for such instrument by the rules made under this Act, or a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used any stamp for an instrument not chargeable with any duty, or when any stamp used for an instrument has been inadvertently rendered useless under section 14, owing to such instrument having been written in contravention of the provisions of section 12, the Collector may, on application made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if chargeable with duty, being re-stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused or rendered useless.

53. In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps, the Collector may give in lieu thereof (a) other stamps of the same description and value, or (b), if required, and he thinks fit, stamps of any other description to the same amount in value, or (c), at his discretion, the same value in money, deducting one anna for each rupee or fraction of a rupee.

54. When any person is possessed of a stamp which has not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp in money, deducting one anna for each rupee, or portion of a rupee upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled, and proving to the Collector's satisfaction that it was purchased by such person with a bona fide intention to use it, and that he has paid the full price thereof, and that it was so purchased within the period of six months next preceding the date on which it is so delivered.

Example.—A conveyance is presented for registration containing 1,350 words. If the parties certify to this fact, the registering officer would at once proceed to charge a fee for three pages ($1,350 \div 600 = 750$), i. e., 12 annas. If the number of words is not known, the registering officer would perhaps charge for two extra pages, or eight annas only, and the deficiency of four annas would have to be made good before the document could be returned.

ADMINISTRATOR GENERAL'S OFFICE.

High Court (South side, 3rd Floor.)

THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE PROPERTY IN INDIA OF DECEASED PERSONS.

THE CUSTODY AND PRESERVATION OF THE PROPERTY IN INDIA OF DECEASED PERSONS NOT HINDUS, MUHAMMADANS, OR BUDDHISTS.

When any person, not a Hindu, Muhammadan, or Buddhist, or exempted by the Governor-General in Council from the operation of the Indian Succession Act, dies leaving "assets" in India, it is the duty of the "Judge of the District" (Act II of 1874, §64) within which the assets are locally situated at the time of the death, to take charge of them, and this is always the case, whether the deceased has left a Will or died intestate.

The District Judge is to report the case to the Administrator-General of the Presidency (Act II of 1874, § 61.) "Assets" include immoveable as well as moveable property (ib § 3.)

In case of a death, therefore, persons interested in the preservation of the property of the deceased in India should at once communicate with the Judge of the district in which any of it is situated, and with the Administrator-General of the Presidency.

They should state the full name and occupation of the deceased—his nationality—the date and place of his death—the nature and amount of any property he may have left in the district in question, or in any other part of India; whether there is or is not a Will; if so, where it is; the names and addresses of the witnesses and executors; if there is no Will, they should give the names and addresses of the next-of-kin of the deceased, &c., so far as they are themselves informed on these matters.

It is also very important, with reference to the stamp duty, that the person who is to represent the estate should know, as soon as possible, the value of the assets, moveable and immoveable, as accurately as it can be ascertained; for until he has this knowledge he cannot apply for probate or letters of administration. The Court Fees Act imposes a stamp duty of 2 per cent upon the assets if they exceed 1,000 rupees, and there is no provision in the Act for any adjustment of the stamp duty after the grant has been made. It must be paid in full at once, and no refund can be made under the Act if the assets are over-estimated. The Government will, however, under a recent order, allow application to be made for a refund in respect of money paid in satisfaction of the debts of the deceased. If the assets do not exceed 1,000 rupees, no stamp is required.

The Realization of Property of small value by a Certificate from the Administrator-General, by the Police, and of small sums in the Government Savings Bank.

If the whole of the assets do not exceed in value Rs. 1,000, any person entitled as executor, as widow, or to administer in any capacity save as a creditor, may apply at once, in writing to the Administrator-General of the Presidency for a Certificate, and on satisfactory proof of the representative right, a certificate can be granted entitling the claimant to receive the sums or securities for money therein severally mentioned (Act II of 1874, § 36) or a creditor may obtain a certificate after the lapse of three months, or the Administrator-General may act without probate or letters of administration (§ 73.)

But no certificate can be granted when probate or letters of administration have been obtained, or in respect of any sum of money deposited in a Government Savings Bank (§ 37.)

Where persons die intestate in the Presidency Towns, leaving property under 200 rupees in value, the police authorities are empowered to take charge of it and to deliver it or to any person showing a right to it, without letters of administration. (Act XIII of 1856, § 113, and the Bengal Act IV, of 1866, § 1,000 Madras Act VIII, of 1867.)

When a person dies leaving in a Government Savings Bank a deposit of a sum of money not exceeding 1,000 rupees, and if probate of his Will, or letters of administration to his estate, or a certificate under Act XXVII of 1869 (this certificate is different from that granted by an Administrator-General, and is granted by a Judge, and is now only given in native cases) is not produced to the Secretary of the Bank within three months of the death of the depositor, the Secretary may pay the money to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer to the estate of the deceased, and he may take such security from such person as he thinks necessary, and he may also, in order to ascertain the right of the person claiming the money, take evidence on oath or affirmation.

An executor or administrator of a deceased depositor is entitled afterwards to receive any sum in the hands of the person so receiving the deposit from the Secretary of the Bank, deducting such part of it as is lawfully paid away in the due course of administration, and a creditor of the deceased may recover his debt against a person so receiving the deposit, should any part remain in his hands unadministered, in the same manner as if the receiver had obtained letters of administration.

If the amount of deposit in a Government Savings Bank belonging to the estate of a deceased person does not exceed 1,000 rupees, such amount shall be excluded in computing the fee chargeable under the Court Fees Act of 1870 on the probate or letters of administration or certificate in respect of his other property. But a certificate of the deposit amount signed by the Secretary of the Bank will, in this case, have to be produced before the Court (Act V.) of 1868. (The Government Savings Bank Act.)

The enactment does not apply to deposits in Savings Banks belonging to estates of European officers, soldiers or deserters.

Letters of Administration in case of Intestacy.

When the deceased has died intestate, those who are connected with him either by marriage or consanguinity, are entitled to obtain letters of administration of his estate and effects in the following order (Act X of 1865 § 206.)

If the deceased has left a widow, administration shall be granted to the widow, unless the Court shall see cause to exclude her.

If there be no widow, or if the Court see cause to exclude her, it shall commit the administration to the person or persons who would be beneficially entitled to the estate according to the rules for the distribution of an intestate's estate: provided that when the mother of the deceased be one of the class of persons so entitled, she shall be solely entitled to administration (§ 203.)

Those who stand in equal degree of kindred to the deceased are equally entitled to administration (§ 204.)

The husband surviving his wife has the same right with respect to her estate (§ 205.)

When there is no person connected with the deceased by marriage or consanguinity who is entitled to letters of administration and willing to act, they may be granted to a creditor (§ 206), but an Administrator-General is entitled to administer in preference to any one but an executor, universal legatee or absolute next-of-kin (Act II of 1864 § 15.)

The application for letters of administration should be made by petition properly stamped and should state the time and place of the death of the deceased; the family or other relatives of the deceased, and their respective residences, the right in which the petitioner claims; that the deceased left some property within the jurisdiction of the District Judge to whom the application is made; and the amount of the assets which are likely to come to the petitioner's hands (§ 246) The petition should be subscribed by the petitioner and verified thus: "I, (A B) the petitioner in the above petition, declare that what is stated therein is true to the best of my knowledge and belief (Act X of 1865 § 247.)

Letters of administration cannot be granted until after the expiration of fourteen clear days from the day of the intestate's death (§ 258) They entitle the administrator to all rights belonging to the intestate as effectually as if the administration had been granted to the moment after his death (§ 181), but they do not render valid any intermediate acts of the administrator tending to the diminution or damage of the intestate's estate (§ 192.)

Every person, except an Administrator-General, to whom any grant of administration is committed, is called upon to enter into a bond, with two sureties, engaging for the due collection and administration of the assets (§ 206.) This bond, is generally in double the amount of the assets likely to come to his hand, and is stamped with a stamp now fixed at 8 rupees (Act VII) of 1870, schedule 2, (clause 16)

SUCCESSION TO MOVEABLE PROPERTY OF DECEASED PERSONS IS REGULATED BY THE LAW OF THEIR PLACE OF DOMICILE.

Should any person die possessed of property in British India, succession to his immovable property is regulated by the law of British India wherever he may have had his domicile at the time of his death (Act X. of 1865, § 5). It follows, therefore, that the law of British India must be complied with—first, in determining the validity of a Will should there be one, second, in the construction of the Will, and third, in case of intestacy, in determining the persons among whom the property is to be divided.

But succession to the moveable property of a deceased person is regulated by the law of the country in which he had his domicile at the time of his death (Ibid). Hence it is necessary in such cases to determine in the first instance what was the domicile of the deceased person.

Under the Indian Succession Act § 6 a person can only have one domicile for the purpose of succession to his moveable property. The domicile of origin of every person of legitimate birth is in the country in which at the time of his birth his father was domiciled, or if he was a posthumous child in the country in which his father was domiciled—at the time of his father's death (§ 7), and the domicile of origin of an illegitimate child is in the country in which at the time of his birth his mother was domiciled (§ 9).

A man acquires a new domicile by taking up his fixed habitation in a country which is not that of his domicile of origin (§ 10). The points to be determined are therefore—first, whether he actually has taken up his residence in the country, and second, whether he intends to make it his “fixed residence for the future” (Explanation, and Illustrations Ibid).

A person may acquire a domicile in British India either by taking up his fixed habitation in the country as above, or by making and depositing in some office in British India (to be fixed by the local Government) a declaration in writing under his hand of his desire to acquire such domicile provided that he shall have been resident in British India for one year immediately preceding the time of his making such declaration (§ 11). A new domicile continues till the former domicile is resumed, or another has been acquired (§ 13).

By marriage a woman acquires the domicile of her husband if she had not the same domicile before (§ 14) and the wife's domicile during the marriage follows the domicile of her husband unless they be separated by the sentence of a competent court, or if the husband is undergoing sentence of transportation (§ 14).

Succession to moveable property of a person who dies in British India leaving moveable property therein in the absence of proof of any domicile elsewhere, is regulated by the law of British India (§ 14).

It would be competent to a foreigner dying in and not domiciled in British India by a Will properly executed to appoint the Administrator General or any other person his executor, and such an appointment would be valid as against the Consul of his nation (§ 179) the executor would be bound to distribute the estate according to the law of the country of the domicile of the deceased as to his moveable property whilst his immovable property, if any, would be subject to the law in force in British India (§ 5).

But should a foreigner having acquired a domicile in British India die either intestate or leaving a Will, the succession to his estate would be regulated by the law in force in British India relative to intestate succession or to Wills as the case might be. That law would apply to all his property whether moveable or immovable in British India, it would all pass to the executor or administrator as the case might be (§ 179) but it would not necessarily pass to the Administrator General unless he should administer. This he would do only in case he were appointed executor, or in the absence or at the request of the next-of-kin or executor, or of an universal legatee (Act II of 1874, § 15).

THE ADMINISTRATOR GENERAL, HIS DUTIES AND POWERS

There are three Administrators General in British India—one for each of the Presidencies of Bengal, Madras and Bombay (Act II of 1874 § 4). Their offices are at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay respectively.

The Presidency of Pen includes for this purpose (§ 5) the territories which are or shall for the time being be respectively under the governments of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal the North Western Provinces, and the Punjab and under the Administration of the Chief Commissioners of Oudh, the Central Provinces, British Burmah, Ajmere and Mairwara, Assam and the Andaman and Nicobar islands, and such of the dominions of the Princes and states in India in alliance with Her Majesty as the Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, from time to time direct.

The Presidency of Madras includes the territories which are or shall for the time being be under the Government of the Governor of Fort St. George in Council, Coorg, Mysore, and such of the dominions aforesaid as the Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, from time to time direct. (ib.)

The Presidency of Bombay means the territories which are or shall for the time being be under the Government of the Governor of Bombay in Council, the Hyderabad Assigned Districts, and such of the dominions aforesaid as the Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, from time to time, direct. (ib.)

The duties of the Administrators-General, and their powers, will be found set out at length in Act II. of 1874 of the Governor-General of India in Council. But it may here be shortly stated, that under Section 15 of that enactment, the Administrator-General is entitled to letters of administration, unless granted to an universal legatee or to the nearest-of-kin, that is, the nearest-of-kin absolutely, not merely the nearest-of-kin in India—in the goods of Smallwood, per Norman J., July 20th 1868, where a brother, the nearest-of-kin in India, was held not to be entitled in priority of the Administrator-General, there being a father and mother alive in England.

By Section 16 he is required, within a reasonable time after he shall have had notice of the death, and that the deceased has left assets within the Presidency (as defined above) to take steps to apply to the High Court for the letters of Administration, and this, whether the deceased has left a Will or not: provided that the assets are of greater value than Rs. 1,000 and that no person shall, within a month after the death, have applied in such Presidency for probate of a Will, or for any letters of Administration of the estate; that is to say no person to whom the Court would have given letters of Administration which would be effectual as regard the assets for which administration is sought.

But there is nothing to prevent the Administrator-General from applying to the Court for letters of administration in any case within the period of one month from the death of the deceased (Act II. of 1874, § 23)

If the assets do not exceed Rs. 1,000 in value in the whole, the Administrator-General is not bound to act; but he may either grant a certificate to some persons entitled, or take charge of the estate himself without letters of administration, under Act II. of 1874 § § 36, 37.

Letters of administration or probate granted to an Administrator-General in his official capacity, authorize the person filling the office for the time being to act as administrator or executor of the estate to which such letters of administration to probate shall relate (§ § 29, 30) and all estates, &c., vested in the Administrator-General, all his books, &c., become vested in and transferred to his successor in office (§ 33), thus the inconvenience, delay and expense attending the appointment of a fresh administration on the death of the original administrator or executor are avoided when the estate is placed in the hands of the Administrator-General.

Any private executor or administrator may, with the consent of the Administrator-General of the Presidency in which the property comprised in the probate or letters of administration is situate, by an instrument in writing under his hand bearing a stamp of ten rupees, and notified in the local Gazette, transfer the estates, &c., vested in him by virtue of such probate or letters to the Administrator-General by his name of office; and thereupon the transferor becomes exempt from all future liability. His future rights and responsibilities are transferred to the Administrator-General. But the transferor remains liable for all his acts and omissions in respect of the property prior to the transfer (§ 31.)

As soon as the Administrator-General takes charge of the estate, the fact is advertised in the Gazette and in the public papers, and creditors are called upon to prove their claims. They should state the amounts and other particulars, and support their claims by such evidence as (under the circumstances of the case) the Administrator-General is reasonably entitled to require. If a claimant fail to do this within one month of the date of the institution of any suit he may bring against the Administrator-General in respect of his claim, he will be liable, in any event, to pay the costs of the suit, and he will not be entitled to have his decree enforced. If he obtain judgment, he will be entitled only to payment out of the assets rateably with the other creditors (§ 35.)

The Administrator-General, like every other executor or administrator, is bound to keep the assets for a reasonable time, to answer the claims of creditors. This time is fixed by the law generally at one year (Wms. Exors, 6th ed, p. 1236); but where the case permits of it, the account can be closed earlier. Like any other executor or administrator he is bound to pay all creditors rateably or preferentially according to the law governing the distribution; after the expiration of a year from the date of his administration no claim can be made upon him in respect of any assets paid or delivered by him to any legatee, or to any person entitled in distribution unless he had notice of the claim (§ 28.)

Under the Indian Succession Act, the following payments only may be made in preference, viz :—Funeral expenses, death-bed charges, fees for medical attendance, board and lodging for one month prior to death.

Expenses of obtaining probate or letters of administration, including the costs of any judicial proceedings necessary for administering the estate, rank next, and then wages for services rendered to the deceased within three months next preceeding his death, by any laborer, artizan, or domestic servant; all other debts are on an equal footing (Act X. of 1865. §§ 279, 280, 281, and 282.) These rules apply in all cases where the assets consist of immoveable property in British India; where they consist of moveable property, the law of the country in which the deceased was domiciled prevails (§283); but no creditor who obtains a part payment in preference to others by reason of this rule, can share in the proceeds of any immoveable property of the deceased without bringing such payment into account (§ 286.)

The Administrator-General is bound to keep accounts as prescribed by the Act. These accounts are audited by the Government and his books are open at all times to the Auditor appointed by Government and to allow persons entitled so to do to inspect them on payment of a reasonable fee fixed by Government (Act II. of 1874. § 43): he is bound to furnish half-yearly Schedules of the estates under his charge in form prescribed by the Act; these schedules are published in the Gazette of the Presidency. Three copies are sent to the Government for transmission to the Secretary of State for India for the information of persons who are interested in the matter.

The Administrator-General of Bengal is entitled to a commission of 3 per cent., and the Administrator-General of Bombay or Madras to a commission of 5 per cent. (§ 52) except in the case of the estates of officers and soldiers, when the commission is uniformly 3 per cent., on the assets after payment of the preferential charges (§§ 21 and 52.) This commission is to cover the expenses of his establishment; but he is entitled to reimburse himself, in addition for any payment made by him in respect of any estate in his charge, which a private administrator of such estate might have lawfully made. (§ 54.) The commission allowed by the Act is the maximum commission. It may be reduced by arrangement in special cases. No person other than an Administrator-General acting officially shall receive or retain any commission or agency charges for anything done under any probate or letters of administration (§ 56.)

All correspondence to the Administrator-General, should be addressed to him by his name of Office.

NATIVE WILLS.

An important change in the law regarding the Wills of Natives was effected by Act XXI. of 1870, by which Act certain sections of the Indian Succession Act are applied to all wills of Hindus, Jains, Sikhs or Buddhists made after the 1st of September, 1870 within the territories subject to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal or the local limits of the High Courts of Judicature at Madras and Bombay; and to all such wills and codicils made outside those territories and limits, so far as relates to immoveable property situate within those territories or limits.

The sections that have been so applied are enumerated. They relate to:—

1. The execution and revocation of Wills and Codicils.

This subject which was very obscure is now no longer left in uncertainty.

The rules are prescribed by the Act—

2. The construction of Wills.

The simple rules contained in Sections 82, 83, 85, and in Sections 88 to 103 (both inclusive) of the Indian Succession Act, are applied to these Wills of Natives, as are also the rules as to the Vesting of Legacies—Onerous and Contingent Bequests, Conditional Bequests and Bequests with directions as to their Application or enjoyment—Bequests to an executor—Specific and Demonstrative Legacies—The Ademption of Legacies—The payment of Liabilities in respect of the subject of a Bequest—Bequest of things described in general terms—of the Interest of Produce of Land—of Annuities—Legacies—Creditors and Portioners—and Election.

3. The proceedings and practice to be observed in obtaining Probate of Wills.

4. The rights and duties of Executors.

In all these matters the native Will is put on the same footing with the Will of the European—any executor may be appointed—and if it is desired to obtain the security of the Government Audit of the executor's accounts, the estate may be made over to the Administrator-General either by the original will or by transfer (under Act II. of 1874, §31,) as is done in the case of Europeans.

OFFICIAL TRUSTEE'S OFFICE.

Town Hall.—(Ground Floor.)

This office was created by Act XVII. of 1843, in consequence of the difficulty experienced in India in obtaining private Trustees, and the trouble and expense of appointing new Trustees, on the death or departure from India of those already created. The Office is now regulated by Act XVII. of 1864.

The Official Trustee is paid by commission, and may, at his own option, undertake all kinds of Trusts, except Religious Trusts; but must always be appointed sole Trustee, and cannot act jointly with any one else.

There are five classes of cases under the Act in which the services of the Official Trustee will be useful.

(1.) New Trusts.—When a person is desirous of making a settlement of property on marriage, or at any other time, for the benefit of his wife or family or of any other person, or for a charitable purpose.

(2.) Assignment for benefit of creditors.—When a person in embarrassed circumstances is desirous of assigning all his property to a Trustee for the benefit of his creditors.

(3.) Existing Trusts.—When the Trustees are dead, or out of the jurisdiction of the High Court, or unwilling to continue acting.

(4.) Gift or Legacies for Infants or Lunatics.—When the executor or other person holding such property is anxious to be relieved of the charge.

(5.) Trusts under a Will.—In all cases the consent of the Official Trustee to his appointment must be obtained before hand, or the appointment will not be valid.

MODE OF OBTAINING APPOINTMENT OF OFFICIAL TRUSTEE.

In new Trusts he is appointed by the Deed creating the Trust. In other cases a petition to the High Court is necessary, the costs of which are usually ordered to be paid out of the Trust Funds. By means of a deed of new appointment in the one case and by a like petition in the other case, the Funds can always be retransferred to a private Trustee, unless otherwise provided by the Deed or Will creating the Trust.

All property and interests vested in an Official Trustee will, upon his death, resignation, or removal from office, vest in his successor in office, without any fresh appointment or charge whatsoever.

It is necessary to employ a Solicitor in preparing Trust Deeds, and in applying to the Court for the appointment of Official Trustee. In most cases, also, it will expedite business if communications respecting Trusts be made through a Solicitor.

COMMISSION.

In new Trusts the rates are agreed upon between the person creating the Trust and the Official Trustee, and will vary according to the nature of the duties to be performed.

In existing Trusts, and on property received for infants and lunatics the rates are fixed by the Act as follows—

- $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on capital monies received.
- $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. on interest and dividends realized.
- $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on rents collected.

Also $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on the investment, when necessary, of any funds received in cash.

INVESTMENTS.

Capital monies and surplus income are invested in Government Securities, except it be otherwise provided by the Deed or Will creating the Trusts.

CUSTODY OF SECURITIES.

All Securities are kept in the Bank of Bengal, and cannot be removed from thence except under an order signed by a Judge of the High Court, specifying the purpose of such removal.

REMITTANCES TO EUROPE.

Remittances to beneficiaries resident in Europe are made at the Government rate of exchange for the year through Government to the Official Agent at the India Office, London, for payment to parties entitled.

AUDIT.

The accounts are audited yearly by Auditors appointed by the Chief Justice.

N. B.—Persons wishing to make a disposition of property by Will, and to appoint an Official Executor, should appoint the Administrator-General, and not the Official Trustee, who cannot act in the capacity of Executor. The Official Trustee however may be appointed Trustee of a Will; his duties as such to commence after the administration of the estate under the Will has been completed, for the consent of the Official Trustee must be obtained to such appointment and be evidenced by his signature at the foot of the Will. The duties of the two Offices are distinct, though they may be and sometimes are held by the same individual.

All correspondence to be addressed to the Official Trustee of Bengal, High Court, Calcutta.

Letter* and Banghy Posts.

1. There are two great branches of the Postal Service, viz., the letter post and the slower banghy post. In the former (letter post) quickness of transit is kept more prominently in view, the letter mail being generally sorted in transit on railway lines and carried in smaller loads on runner lines.

Articles not exceeding 20 tolas in weight are forwarded by the letter post (at letter, post card, or book or pattern packet rates, as the case may be) except when they are specially marked, or presented, by the senders for transmission as parcels. And any fully prepaid packet exceeding 20 tolas in weight which contains only a single newspaper† is also transmitted by the letter post.

Articles exceeding 20 tolas in weight (except newspapers packed and prepaid as above) are forwarded by the banghy post (at parcel or book or pattern packet rates, as the case may be) except when they are specially marked by the senders for transmission as letters, or when an intention to send them as letters is inferred from the outward appearance or other indication, such as prepayment of letter postage.

Post-cards.

2. Post-cards having any thing but the address written, printed, or otherwise impressed, on the front (or address) side, or having any paper or other article attached to them will be treated as letters. Post-cards may not be folded, cut or otherwise altered, but the perforation of the stamps on post-card with initials (for the prevention of theft) is not objected to.

Book and Pattern Packets, how to be packed.

3. Book and Pattern Packets must be packed in "open covers." By this term are meant covers open at the ends so as to admit of a ready examination of the contents, and containing nothing closed against inspection. Book and pattern packets without covers are treated in the same way as those in open covers.

Samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles which cannot be sent in open covers,—but such articles only—may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen or of other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be easily opened, so as to enable the officers of the Post office readily to satisfy themselves of the nature of the contents.

NOTE.—Here and elsewhere, the term "letters" includes post-cards, unless expressly distinguished from them.

† Note.—Here and elsewhere in this Section the term "newspaper" includes periodicals published at intervals not exceeding 31 days.

In cases where the protection of an air-tight covering is necessary for the safe transmission of such samples, they may be altogether closed, provided that the nature of the contents is certified on the cover under the full signature and address of the sender.

Samples of cheroots may be sent in cases with perforated ends, provided that the perforations are large enough to admit of the contents being distinguished, and provided that the nature of the contents is certified on the cover under the full signature and address of the sender.

Contents of Book and Pattern Packets.

4. A Book Packet may contain newspapers, paper, parchment or card-board, with or without printing or writing, also any legitimate binding, mounting, covering or other ordinary appurtenances of books or maps, also invoices, bills of lading, receipts, accounts, copies or extracts of deeds, bank pass books, insurance documents, and business papers generally, provided that there shall be no communication having the character of an actual and personal correspondence, unless such communication be wholly printed, lithographed or papyrographed. Proof sheets marked as such on the outside under the signature of the sender (even though they may bear manuscript correction), shall be reckoned as being "wholly printed" within the meaning of this rule. Press manuscripts intended for publication (even though in the form and with the character of a personal correspondence) may be transmitted in a book packet, provided that the packet has on the outside, above the address, the superscription "Press Manuscript," and is addressed to the office of a newspaper.

A Pattern Packet may contain only bond file trade patterns or samples of merchandise, and may not exceed 40 tolas in weight or possess any saleable value. There must be no writing upon or in any pattern packet except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the name and address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles.

Size of Book and Pattern Packets.

5. No packet may exceed two feet in length or one foot in width or depth.

Book and Pattern Packets not fulfilling the prescribed conditions.

6. Book or Pattern Packets not fulfilling the prescribed conditions will be forwarded charged with letter or parcel postage, whichever may be the least: if treated as parcels any stamps affixed will be disregarded, so far as concerns prepayment of postage.

Parcels, how to be packed.

7. The sender of a parcel is recommended to see to its secure packing. The sender of a small parcel is also recommended so to pack it as to have sufficient clear surface for the impression of the Post Office stamp, as the absence of the stamp impression interferes with its safety.

Contents, Weight and Size, &c., of Parcels.

8. Not more than one communication having the character of an actual and personal correspondence (unless wholly printed, lithographed or papyrographed) may be enclosed in a parcel.

Receipts and acknowledgments for parcels.

9. A receipt for a parcel is given to a person tendering it at a Post Office within the prescribed hours. A receipt for each parcel is ordinarily given to the sender, and a receipt for each parcel is ordinarily taken from the addressee; but in the case of a number of parcels posted by the same person at the same time and all bearing the same address, only one receipt is given to the sender, and only one demanded from the addressee, the separate number of each parcel being, however, entered on the single receipt. Should, however, the person who posts the parcels demand separate receipts, they will be given, and in that case separate receipts will also be taken from the addressee. The sender of a parcel will be furnished with an acknowledgment signed by the addressee on payment of one anna for postage. When a sender desires an acknowledgment, he must give his name and full address at the time of presenting the parcel and prepay the acknowledgment postage in cash, independently of the amount (if any) which may be prepaid for the conveyance of the parcel. The acknowledgment will be posted to the sender's address by the office where the parcel is delivered.

The sender of an ordinary parcel may, if he so desires, present a receipt for the same, ready written in a book, at the Post Office window when tendering the parcel for despatch.

In such cases the receiving officer will compare the entries in the book with the address upon the parcel, and, after entering in the receipt the number and weight of the parcel, will date, sign and stamp the book, which will then be returned to the sender in lieu of furnishing him with the usual postal form of receipt. The object of this arrangement is to meet the convenience of persons posting several parcels at the same time, who may wish to preserve receipts in the form of a book.

Addresses on Inland Articles.

7. No address is complete which does not contain the Post Town from which delivery is intended, and care should always be taken to write the name of the Post Town as clearly as possible. It should generally form the last part of the address. Names liable to be confused with other names are distinguished in the List of post offices by having the name of the District added (with a hyphen) in the same type: and persons addressing articles to such places are recommended to follow this plan. If an article be directed to a Post Town of small note, it is proper to add in brackets the name of the Province in which the Post Town of address is situated. This can always be ascertained by reference to the List of Post Offices. Correspondence which does not bear the name of a Post Town, but which contains the name of a district or Province, is, as a rule, forwarded to the Head Quarter Post Town of such District or Province, and thence re-forwarded if reliable information about the addressee is available.

8. It is very necessary to see that the name of the Province when added as above is given in brackets, so as not to be mistaken for the Post Town in cases where there is a Post Town of the same name. For instance, a letter for Rajghat in the Benares District may, if the word "Benares" be written without brackets, be sent to Benares Post Town.

9. Inconvenience having been experienced in the delivery of articles to public officers at their offices or private residences, as well as to those changing their stations or appointments, owing to the frequent inclusion in the address of both name and official designation, and to the consequent doubt whether the cover is intended for the individual or the official, the public are invited to regulate the form of address so as to ensure correct delivery under the following rule prescribed for the guidance of Postal officials, viz.—The delivery of articles superscribed by a public officer as on H. M.'s Service is governed by the official designation (when given) of the addressee, and the delivery of covers not so superscribed is governed by the name (when given) of the addressee.

Note—The last clause of the above rule relating to articles not superscribed as on Her Majesty's Service governs also the delivery of articles addressed to persons holding office in Banks, Firms, or other institutions or offices. For instance, a letter addressed to the Editor of a newspaper (no name being included in the address) will be delivered to the Editor for the time being, but a letter addressed to a particular individual by name together with the designation of Editor will, in the absence of special instructions to the contrary from the individual named, be delivered to him, even though he may have ceased to be Editor.

10. Care should be taken to spell the names of Post Towns in the same way as they are spelt in the List of Post Offices, and to write them legibly in large well-formed characters. It must be remembered that to the natives of this country the English language is an acquired one, and that they are not so well able to decipher imperfect current hand-writing as if the language and character were their own.

Currency Notes, &c., must be registered.

11. Letters containing a currency note, or any portion thereof, or manifestly containing a postage or other stamp or label, or a cheque, hundi, bank note, bank post bill, bill of exchange, or the like addressed to any place in India must be registered.

Coin, &c., must be insured.

12. In order to protect, as far as possible, the public mails from the chance of robbery, officers in charge of Post Offices shall not knowingly receive coin, bullion, precious stones, or jewels for despatch either by letter or banghly post, unless insured; and it is strongly recommended that currency notes and other valuables, referred to in the preceding clause, should also be insured.

Transmission of dangerous or offensive substances and of fragile articles.

13. It is forbidden to send by post explosive, dangerous, or offensive substances or material, such as gunpowder, matches, percussion caps, saltpetre, indigo, as-afoetida, glass, liquids, &c., or any article which either in itself (however packed) or by reason of insecure packing may be liable to injure the contents of the mail bags or the persons of the mail officers. Articles which either in themselves (however packed) or by reason of insecure packing are liable to injury from transmission with other articles in an ordinary mail bag, may be refused at the discretion of the Post Master, and, if forwarded, will be at the sole risk of the owner, it being understood that the Post Office cannot make special provision for the carriage of such articles.

14. It is also forbidden to forward by post any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, publication, packet, or card having thereon any words, marks, or designs of any indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character. Anything posted contrary to this publication will, if its character be observed by the Post Office, be forwarded to the Dead Letter Office.

Changes of residence.

15. Persons changing their place of residence are particularly requested to leave written instructions at the Post Office of their previous residence, and to send written instructions to the Post Office of the place to which they may be going. A separate written instruction is required for every change of address, and no instruction will be attended to for more than three months after its receipt. No complicated or conditional instructions for re-direction can be attended to, and persons desiring services of this nature are advised to employ an agent, to whom, if they so desire, all articles received to their address will be delivered. Instructions for re-direction should state clearly whether they are meant to apply to articles for other members of the family or household of the person giving the instructions.

Signature of receipts and acknowledgments by addressee.

16. Receipts and acknowledgments tendered by the Post Office for signature along with registered articles or parcels must be signed by the addressee. In the case of refusal to sign receipts or acknowledgments, the registered articles or parcels shall be returned to the sender with intimation of the cause of non-delivery. Any Government officer or private individual or firm usually receiving a considerable number of registered articles or parcels, may be allowed, on special written application to the Post Office of delivery, to sign receipts and acknowledgments for registered articles and parcels by means of a stamped fac-simile of signature. The written application should be renewed at least once a year. Such permission may at any time be withdrawn under the orders of the Post Master General (or officer exercising the powers of Post Master General).

Sundays and Holidays.

17. The work of all Post Offices is limited as much as possible on Sundays, and in the Presidency Towns the work is similarly limited on the four principal holidays, viz., Christmas, New Year's Day, Good Friday, and the Queen's birthday. On these days the offices will not be open (except under special local notification) for official references or personal applications or for the receipt of registered articles, or parcels, insured or value-payable articles, or for the issue or payment of money orders. Post Masters are not bound to provide stamps for sale on the days mentioned above.

Hours for references, posting, delivery, &c.

18. The usual hours on week days for the special classes of work noted below are mentioned opposite them :—

fied locally) up to half an hour before the closing of the mail.

Closing of mails	6 P M., for night mails ; for mails despatched during the day half an hour before the despatch of the mail in question.
Clearing of letter boxes	The hour marked on each box.
Delivery of mails	The hour notified in each Post Office.

But the hours for registration, insurance and the receipt of parcels have been specially fixed in the Bombay Post Office as from 10 A M. to 4 P M., and in the Calcutta Post Office as from 11 A M. to 5 P M. for registration ; in a few other offices special hours have also been specially fixed. Registered, insured and value-payable articles, also parcels and money order intended for despatch by a particular mail, must be presented at least half an hour before the time fixed for closing the mail.

Articles to be called for at Clubs, Hotels, &c.

19. All articles addressed to club houses, hotels, railway stations, and other places where articles are received to be called for, should be returned to the Post Office as soon as it has become evident that they will not be called for. Such articles should, under ordinary circumstances, be returned to the post-men within a month of their delivery.

Telegrams intended for onward transmission by Inland Post.

20. In the case of a message for a non-telegraph station in India, the sender should indicate the Telegraph Office by which the message is to be made over to the Post Office, thus—

To	(Station)	Simla.
To {	(Name)	Mr. A Smith.
	(Address)	Kotgarh, Post, Simla.

The Telegraph office will understand from the above that the message is to be telegraphed to Simla and there delivered to the Post Office for transmission to Mr. A. Smith at Kotgarh. The Telegraph Department prepays the postage without charging anything extra on that account to the sender.

But if the sender wishes the message when sent by post to be registered, he must prepay the postal registration fee of 4 annas (by a telegraph stamp or stamps), in addition to the ordinary telegraph charge, and enter the word "registered" after the word "post" in the address ; thus "Post registered, Simla."

Note.—A registration fee of 4 annas is also payable in the case of messages to which replies are prepaid, and which are addressed to a station where there is no Telegraph Office, or to a station on the Eastern Bengal, Madras or South Indian Railways. The Railways mentioned above decline to take charge of reply prepaid messages, and they are therefore forwarded registered by post from the nearest Government Telegraph Office.

Telegrams intended for onward transmission by Foreign Post.

21. In the case of a message intended for any place abroad telegraphed to the Indian post of despatch of the mails, a fee of 12 annas to cover postage and registration must be prepaid. Thus a message prepaid in telegraph stamps with 12 annas in addition to the ordinary inland telegraph charge, and addressed—

To	(Station)	Bombay.
{	(Name)	Messrs. H. S. King & Co.
	(Address)	45, Pall Mall, London. Post registered, Bombay.

will be telegraphed to Bombay and forwarded thence by post registered to the London address. Any messages intended for transmission abroad which may be received in Bombay too late for registration, will be posted unregistered.

Treatment of letters, &c., suspected to contain anything in contravention of Postal Rules.

22. Letters or other articles suspected to contain anything in contravention* of Postal Rules shall not be detained for examination at the despatching office, but shall be forwarded marked "Doubtful." The Post Master receiving such letters or other articles shall then act in accordance with Section 60 of the Post Office Act. †

Where the infringement of rule is obvious, no detention being necessary for the purpose of examination, and the penalty being merely the charge of a different rate of postage, or the refusal to receive or forward the article, the Post Master of the despatching office will himself take the necessary steps; and in all cases in which it is suspected that explosive, dangerous, or offensive substances are enclosed, it is the duty of the despatching office to do so. Post-cards having anything but the address written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the address side (in disregard of the instructions printed on the post-card), or having any paper or other article attached to them, will be treated as letters.

Post Office may refuse to receive letters, &c., bearing appearance of having been opened.

23. The Post Master at any station, or the person in charge of the Post Office, has power to refuse letters or other articles bearing the appearance of having been opened and re-closed, or otherwise improperly dealt with, unless the writer or sender thereof shall attest with his full signature that they were sent in that state. The refusal will be absolute in the case of registered letters and parcels tendered for insurance.

Letters, &c., once posted not to be returned without express order, except in specified cases.

24. The following rules govern the re-delivery to the sender of all letters and other articles posted in a Post Office or Post Office letter-box, except in the manner described (for unclaimed letters, &c.) in Section 29 of the Post Office Act, or in the case of a letter or other article addressed to a place beyond the limits of British India which for any reason cannot be forwarded to destination:—

(1) No letters or other articles delivered into any Post Office shall be re-delivered except under the orders of—

- (a) The Chief Postal Authority in a Province;
- (b) The Director-General of the Post Office;
- (c) The Local Government or Administration; or
- (d) The Governor-General in Council.

* For example—

- (1) Any letter, paper, writing, or other enclosure of a private nature, forwarded under color or pretence of an official communication.
- (2) Any contraband article, or any article on which duty is owing to Government.
- (3) Book or pattern Packets containing a communication having the character of an actual and personal correspondence (not wholly printed, lithographed or papyrographed).
- (4) Parcels having more than one such communication (not wholly printed, lithographed or papyrographed).
- (5) Articles containing opium transmitted otherwise than on Government account.
- (6) Clabbed packets.
- (7) Dangerous or offensive substances, &c.

† Indian Post Office Act, Section 60.

If any officer in charge of a Post Office shall suspect that any letter or other article lying for delivery at his office contains any contraband article, or any article on which duty is owing to Government; or that any letter or other article lying for delivery at the Post Office contains any writing or enclosure in contravention of the provisions of Sections 14, 16, or 43 (see list of forbidden articles under preceding foot-note) of this Act, it shall be lawful for such officer to summon the person to whom the letter or other article is directed, to attend at the Post Office by himself or agent, within forty-eight hours after the arrival thereof at that Post Office, and to open the same in the presence of the person to whom it is directed, or of that person's agent, and if that person shall not so attend by himself or agent, then to open it in the presence of that person. Provided that if the officer in charge be under the rank of a Post Master, he shall call in two respectable persons as witnesses before he shall open a letter or other article in the absence of the person to whom it is addressed. Provided also, that in all cases the opened letter or other article shall be subsequently delivered to the persons to whom it is addressed, unless it be required for ulterior proceedings, and that the opening of the same and the circumstances connected therewith shall be immediately reported to the Post Master General. * * *

2. A fee of one rupee shall be paid with any application for such re-delivery.

Note.—A single fee of one rupee is all that is required on each application, even though the application may refer to more than one letter or article.

3. An application for the re-delivery of any such letter or article may be presented in writing to the said officers, Governments, or Administrations, directly, or through any officer in charge of a Post Office.

4. Such application shall be received only from the writer of the letter or the sender of the article, or from some person duly authorised in this behalf by such writer or sender.

5. The application shall be accompanied by a statement (which may be enclosed in a sealed cover) of the reasons why re-delivery of the letter or article is sought. Such sealed cover shall be opened only by the officer or by a Secretary to the Government or Administration to whom or to which the application is presented.

6. Upon receipt of such application and statement, together with a fee of one rupee as aforesaid, by a Post Master or other Officer in charge of a Post Office, he shall immediately send the application and statement to the nearest officer or authority having power under Rule 1 to dispose of such application.

7. If the letter or article of which re-delivery is sought is in his possession, the said Post Master or other officer, instead of forwarding it to its address, shall send it with the application to the said officer or authority.

8. If the letter or article is not in the possession of the said Post Master or other officer, he shall require any other officer of the Post Office in whose possession it may be to abstain from sending it to its address, and to send it instead to the authority or officer to which or to whom the application will be, or has been, sent. The requisition to such other officer may be sent by telegraph, but all expenses attending its transmission must be borne by the applicant.

9. When the application reaches the officer or authority named in Rule 1, to whom it is thus sent, he or it may order re-delivery of the letter or article upon being satisfied that the applicant is the writer or sender, and that sufficient reasons have been given for the re-delivery; otherwise he shall send it at once to its address.

10. No letter delivered into the post shall be re-delivered in any case to any one but the writer, or to some person authorised by the writer in writing to receive it; and no article, not being a letter delivered into the post, shall be re-delivered to any one but the sender, or to some person authorised by the sender in writing to receive it.

11. In the foregoing rules, the word "writer" does not include a person who writes a letter which another dictates or directs to be written, or who copies a letter which has been written by another; but in each of such cases the author of the letter shall, for the purposes of these rules, be held to be the "writer."

These rules apply to all letters and articles, official as well as non-official. But in the case of official letters and articles no fee is taken, the cost whereof would be debited as public expenditure.

Re-directed and re-posted Articles.

25. Articles re-directed are not chargeable with any additional Indian postage on account of re-direction. Re-directed articles include not only articles re-directed in a Post Office, but articles which having been delivered, but not opened, are returned or re-posted with a revised address within the local limits of the Post-town of last delivery: such articles are reckoned as being re-directed from the Post-town of last delivery. No refund of postage which may have been paid on the delivery of such articles is allowed; but postage paid at the first delivery will not be demanded again from the addressee under the revised address. Articles which have been opened and re-posted, or which, even though not opened, are re-posted at any Post-town other than that of last delivery, are treated as articles posted for the first time, no account being taken of any cancelled postage stamps which may be on them.

Person rejecting a chargeable letter, &c., unopened, not bound to pay the charge.

26. The person to whom any chargeable letter or other article may be delivered, is not bound to pay the amount charged if he forthwith returns the same unopened; but if he opens or retains the same, he is bound to pay the amount charged thereon. If he forthwith returns the same unopened, the article is treated as refused.

Refund of charge on letters, &c., sent maliciously.

27. If a letter or other article shall appear to the satisfaction of the Post Master of the Office of delivery to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the person to whom it is addressed, the Post Master of the Delivery Office may remit the amount charged.

Amount marked on a letter, &c., to be paid at once.

25. Whatever amount is marked on a letter or other article must be paid at once on delivery, after which any complaint of overcharge will be attended to.

Remedy of Post Office in case of refusal to pay the charge.

26. The charge which any person is bound to pay, but which he refuses to pay, is recoverable in the same manner as a fine under the Post Office Act, and the officer in charge of any Post Office has further the power of withholding from any person so refusing, until such charge be paid, any other letter or article addressed to that person not being on Her Majesty's Service.

Commanding Officers to receive letters, &c., for their Regiments.

27. Letters, &c., directed to Native Officers or men of regiments or detachments, shall be delivered to an orderly or any other fit person, who shall be deputed by the Officer commanding the regiment or detachment to receive the same; but letters, &c., on which postage may be due shall not be delivered to such person unless the postage be first paid.

Post-men must require immediate payment of amount due and signature of receipts and acknowledgments.

28. Post-men are forbidden to deliver any letter, or other article without requiring immediate payment of the exact amount due, or to deliver any registered letter or parcel without requiring the immediate signature of the receipt or receipts and acknowledgment. They are not bound to give change. If the amount charged is not at once tendered or if the receipts or acknowledgments are not at once signed, and the post-man is subjected to detention, the letters, &c., shall be taken back to the Post Office for the next delivery. Post-men are forbidden to deviate from their prescribed routes.

Delivery Tickets.

29. Delivery tickets for the delivery of letters, &c., at the Post Office window can be obtained at the cost of Rs 12 per annum from all Post Offices authorized by the Post Master General (or officer exercising the powers of Post Master General) to grant them, under conditions which can be ascertained at the Post Office.

Letter-boxes marked for "letters only."

30. Letter-boxes marked for "letters only" must not be used for posting newspapers, book or pattern packets or parcels, and any such articles found in them will be subject to detention.

Late Letters.

31. Except when a Post Master General shall deem a longer interval necessary, "late letters" will be received at any Post Office until fifteen minutes before the despatch of the mails. But no late letter will be forwarded by the mail preparing for despatch unless fully prepaid by means of stamps, so as to include the ordinary postage and the late-letter fee. The late-letter fee is four annas, except where any lower rate or scale of rates may be specially authorised by a Post Master General for any particular Office.

N. B.—Late letters are such as are posted after the hour fixed for the closing of any mail, and which therefore cannot be sent forward by the mail then in preparation unless extra payment be made. No Office shall be kept open merely for the reception of late letters after the usual hour of closing at night. Late letters can be posted only at a Post Office.

Unclaimed Letters, &c.,—how disposed of.

32. If any registered article or prepaid parcel remains unclaimed for three weeks in any Post Office it is returned to the Posting Office for delivery to the sender; any other article, similarly remaining unclaimed for three weeks in any Post Office, is forwarded to the Dead Letter Office, by which it is returned to the sender, if his name and address are on the cover; and if his name and address are not on the cover, it is opened and returned to the sender in a dead letter cover if his name and address can be ascertained, otherwise it is destroyed after remaining in the Dead Letter Office for one year.

Poste-Restante, &c.

33. As an exception to the above rule, articles addressed "Poste-Restante" or "To wait arrival," or "to be kept till called for," or simply "Post Office," will be retained one month, and in the Presidency towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, as well as in Aden, Rangoon and Karachi, for four months in lieu of three weeks.

Refused Letters, &c.,—how disposed of

34. Any letter or other article rejected unopened by the addressee is, if any amount is due thereon, and if the sender's name and address are written on the cover, returned to the Posting Office (through the Dead Letter Office), in order that the amount due may be recovered from the sender; in all other cases, or when the sender's name and address are not on the cover, such letter or other article is sent to the Dead Letter Office, where it is opened, the amount due being recovered from the sender or the article destroyed.

Unlawful detention of Post Office Messengers, &c.,—penalty.

35. It is not lawful for any person, unless acting by express order of the Government, to detain, except for a criminal offence, a Post Office messenger whilst carrying the mails or to detain any carriage or horse upon which the mails are being carried or on any pretence to open a packet or mail bag or box in transit from one Post Office to another; and any person guilty of such an offence is punishable with a fine not exceeding Rs. 500.

Refusal to deliver up letters, &c., which ought to have been delivered to another person,—penalty.

36. Any person who shall fraudulently retain, or wilfully secrete or make away with, or keep or detain, or being required to deliver up by an Officer of the Post Office, shall neglect or refuse to deliver up a post letter or other article which ought to have been delivered to any other person, or mail bag, box, or packet containing a letter or other article which shall have been sent by the post, is punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, and is also liable to fine.

Clubbed Packet—Definition of, and prohibition against.

37. A "clubbed packet" according to the definition given in the Post Office Act, is "a packet containing a collection of letters not made by an agent of the Post Office, transmitted through the Post Office with the view of the enclosed letters being delivered to more than one person through the agent of the person by whom the packet was made up;" and the public are reminded that the transmission of clubbed packets is an infringement of the law, rendering the person liable to severe penalties under Section 45 of the Post Office Act.

Government not responsible for loss.

38. Under Section 65 of the Post Office Act, the Government is not responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of anything entrusted to the Post Office for conveyance, and no person employed by the Government in the Post Office Department is responsible for any such loss or damage, unless that person shall have caused such loss or damage negligently, maliciously, or fraudulently. As an exception to this, the Government undertakes responsibility for insured articles to the extent indicated in Section V.

Complaints against the Post Office.

39. Complaints against the Post Office, certified as such under the full signature and address of the sender, and addressed to any officer of the Postal Department, are not chargeable with any postage. In all complaints of overcharge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters or other articles, the covers or envelopes bearing the Post Office stamp must be presented for inspection; and when any complaints are preferred against any post-man, the number on his badge should be specified.

CERTIFICATES OF POSTING OF UNREGISTERED ARTICLES.

Preparation and presentation of Certificates.

1. Persons desirous to have a certificate of posting in respect of any article for which Post Office receipt is not given, may obtain such certificate under the following conditions, viz:—

1. The certificate of posting should be presented ready written in ink along with the article to be posted, and both the certificate and the article should be presented at the Post Office window on any day, except Sunday, during open hours as notified locally, at least half an hour before the hour fixed for closing the mail for which it is intended.

(2.) The certificate should be an exact transcript of what is entered upon the address side of the article to be posted, and should have a half anna postage label affixed thereto.

(3.) The Post Office will compare the address of the letter with the certificate, and if it be correct, will obliterate the postage label and impress the dated stamp upon the certificate. The certificate will be returned to the person who presented it.

The object of Certificates.

2. The object of these certificates is to give to the public the means of knowing that articles entrusted to messengers to be posted have actually been posted ; the grant of a certificate of posting does not affect registration or obtain for the article posted any special security in transmission by post. After receipt in the Post Office such articles are treated as ordinary unregistered articles.

REGISTRATION.

Full pre-payment of free and postage. Presentation at window.

1. Any letter, post-card, book packet or pattern packet, may be registered at any Post Office for transmission by Inland Post, provided that the registration fee, together with the postage, be fully prepaid by means of stamps. All articles intended for registration must be presented for that purpose at the window. Articles found in the letter-box marked "Registered" are treated as ordinary articles, except in the cases provided for in clause 8 below. The registration fee is 2 annas for a book or pattern packet, and 4 annas for a letter or post-card.

Parcels.

2. Parcels being transmitted under the same precautions as registered articles, no separate registration of such parcels is necessary.

Registration makes transmission more secure.

3. Registration makes the transmission of an article more secure, as it passes through the hands of comparatively few Postal Officers, every one of whom has to give an acknowledgment of receipt. But although every endeavour will be made to trace the delinquent in any case of loss of, or damage to, a registered article, the Government is not responsible for such loss or damage under Section 65 of the Post Office Act.

Receipts and acknowledgments for registered articles.

4. A receipt for each article is ordinarily given to the sender, and a receipt for each article is ordinarily taken from the addressee ; but in the case of a number of registered articles posted by the same person at the same time and all bearing the same address, only one receipt is given to the sender, and only one demanded from the addressee, the separate number of each article being, however, entered on the single receipt. Should, however, the person who posts the articles demand separate receipts, they will be given, and in that case separate receipts will also be taken from the addressee.

The sender of a registered article may, if he so desires, present a receipt for the same, ready written in a book, at the Post Office window when tendering the article for registration. In such cases the receiving officer will compare the entries in the book with the address on the article, and, after entering in the receipt the number and weight of the article, will date, sign and stamp the book, which will then be returned to the sender in lieu of furnishing him with the usual postal form of receipt. The object of this arrangement is to meet the convenience of persons registering several articles at the same time, who may wish to preserve receipts in the form of a book.

The sender of a registered article will be furnished with an acknowledgment signed by the addressee on payment of one anna for postage. When a sender desires an acknowledgment, he must give his name and full address at the time of registering the article, and prepay the acknowledgment postage by means of a stamp affixed to the article in addition to the postage and registration fee otherwise due. The acknowledgment will be posted to the sender's address by the office where the registered article is delivered.

The sender should furnish his name and address.

5. The sender of a registered article is not bound to give his name and address unless he desires an acknowledgment under the preceding rules, but he is recommended always to do so, either verbally if he posts the article himself, or, if he posts it by the hand of a messenger, by writing his name and address on the cover on the lower left-hand corner or on a separate slip of paper. The name and address of the sender when given are recorded in the despatching office, so that if the article miscarries, or suffers damage in transit, or cannot for any reason be delivered, intimation may be forwarded to the sender.

Registered letters should be securely enclosed and sealed.

6. The sender of a registered letter is recommended to see that it is enclosed in a cover or envelope of a substantial kind fastened in a secure manner. Sealing-wax with a distinct impression (other than that of the current coin) is recommended for fastening the cover, instead of, or in addition to, any other means of fastening.

Currency Notes, &c., must be registered.

7. If an article posted at any Indian Post Office and addressed to any place in India contains a currency note or any portion thereof, or manifestly contains a postage or other stamp, or label, or a cheque, hundi, bank-note, bank post bill, bill of exchange or the like, the registration thereof is compulsory; and if any such article be found unregistered at any stage of its passage through the post, it is registered and a double registration fee charged on delivery in addition to any other postage which may be due. Nothing in this rule necessitates the registration of an article containing a postage or other stamp or label, a cheque, hundi, bank-note and the like, unless the contents thereof are either superscribed upon the cover, or are known or manifest to the officers of the post office Department, owing to the transparency, insecurity, or insufficiency of the cover or to any other cause. Attention is drawn to the following order of the Government published in the Gazette of India of the 27th March 1869, viz:— "In ordinary cases of lost notes, the Currency Department registers notes, reported to have been lost, and communicates by letter with the losers. In cases where the holders of notes knowingly disregard the Notification of Government, making it compulsory to register letters containing currency notes, payment for half-notes lost under such circumstances should only be made as the law would oblige, viz., at the counter of the Currency Office under the usual bond, and the Currency Office should refuse to correspond regarding notes so lost, or to remit the amount as is done in ordinary cases."

INSURANCE.

The following rules relate to the insurance of registered letters and parcels:—

Coin, &c., must be insured.

1. Coin, bullion, precious stones, and jewels can be sent by post only in insured registered letters or insured parcels; and senders are recommended to insure all articles of value where possible. Registered letters and parcels may be insured for transmission by inland post for the actual value (by which is meant the whole actual value) of the contents. The actual value must be certified on them by the sender.

Insurance Offices, Compensation, &c.

2. The facility for insuring registered letters and parcels will be made available at almost all Post Offices. Insured articles cannot be posted at or delivered from Post Offices not included in the list of Post Offices, e. g., Native State Post Offices or Foreign Post Offices. By Native State Post Offices are meant Post Offices situated in Native

States and managed by the Native State administrations. Undeliverable insured articles will be at once returned to the office of origin for redelivery to the sender and in view to the refund to him of the insurance fee. The Government will guarantee to the sender the safe transit of insured registered letters and parcels, and will give compensation to him within the insured value for any actual loss occurring in transit from any cause whatsoever, except in the cases described below.

The excepted cases are as follows —

(1) Misdelivery arising out of incorrectness or incompleteness of the address written by the sender

(2) Fraud or wrong or incomplete declaration or certificate on the part of the sender or addressee

(3) When the receipt of acknowledgment has been signed by the addressee or his agent it being understood that the addressee shall fully examine the outward appearance of the letter or parcel before signing the receipt or acknowledgment. By the term agent is meant not merely a person specially authorized by the addressee but any servant or other person connected with the addressee's household or business establishment, who is accustomed to sign the receipts for registered letters or parcels arriving to his address. Any person who wishes to restrict the delivery of insured articles arriving to his address may do so by communicating with the Post Office.

(4) When the sender does not give intimation of loss within three months from the date of posting

(5) In cases of damage as distinguished from loss it being understood that the sender is responsible for the proper packing of articles liable to damage so as to provide sufficient protection for them

(6) When there is no visible damage to the envelope or other covering or seals it being understood that the sender must pack the letter or parcel that its contents cannot be touched without visible damage as aforesaid being caused

(7) When the loss occurs during uninsured transit, in the case of partially insured articles.

3. The compensation will be payable one month after the date on which intimation of loss is given by the sender to the Post Office except in cases in which the Post Master General (or officer exercising the powers of Post Master General) may consider that the circumstances demand the withholding of payment pending enquiry.

Acknowledgments Intimation of loss

4. An acknowledgment signed by the addressee will in ordinary course be transmitted to the sender and in the event of the acknowledgment conveying the intimation of loss, or of the non receipt of an acknowledgment within three months, he is expected to give intimation to the Post Office.

Ownership of lost articles &c

5. The sender shall on receiving compensation make over in writing to the Government the whole of his rights in the lost property, and shall give all information necessary to facilitate the search for it.

Limits of Weight and Size No limit of Value

6. No letter or parcel may be insured for an amount greater or less than the actual value of its contents as certified thereon by the sender. Letters and parcels may be insured without limit as to value. The weight of an insured parcel may not exceed the usual limit of 2000 tins and in respect of size, &c, it will be subject to the ordinary conditions mentioned in Section I.

Insurance Fees

7. The charges for insurance will be as follows —

	As	As.
When the value certified does not exceed Rs. 50	2 and 4 annas for every additional rupee 100 or fraction thereof

Prepayment compulsory.

8. The prepayment of all charges on insured articles is compulsory. In the case of insured letters the prepayment (of postage as well as registration and insurance fees) must be by means of postage stamps; and in the case of insured parcels the prepayment (of postage as well as insurance fees) must be by means of cash tendered with the parcels.

Dated 1st February 1878.

Declaration of Value & Contents required.

9. A written declaration* stating the nature and actual value of the contents must accompany each registered letter or parcel tendered for insurance, and if currency notes form the contents or part of the contents thereof, the serial and general numbers as well as the value of each note must be written in the declaration. The signature and address of the sender must be added. This declaration will be recorded in the Post Office.

or parcel; no correction or erasure is permissible in the writing or figures of the amount certified.

Penalty for false Declaration.

11. Any person making a false certificate will be liable to the penalty under Section 48 of the Post Office Act of 1866, as well as to penalties for cheating under the Penal Code.

Hours for Insurance.

12. Registered letters and parcels intended for insurance must be presented at the window of the Post Office. The hours for their reception will be the ordinary registration hours, which with a few exceptions are from 7 to 8 A. M., and from noon to 5 P. M. They will not be received at all on Sundays, and they must be tendered at least one hour before the time fixed for the closing of the mail by which they are intended to be despatched, otherwise they will be detained till the next despatch is made.

Mode of Packing, Sealing, &c.

13. Letters and parcels intended for insurance should be closed as follows :—
In the case of a letter if the cover be an envelope of the ordinary kind as represented on the margin, it should be of strong paper and must have seals on the flap point in the centre, and on each of the four corners, with distinct impressions of some device other than that of a current coin. If the cover of the letter be other than an ordinary envelope of the kind referred to above, it should be of strong paper or other substantial material, and must have seals placed along each fold or seam not more than two inches apart. A parcel must be securely packed in cloth, or tin, and if it is packed in cloth, it must bear similar seals at intervals not exceeding three inches along each line of sewing. Packing in wax-cloth as an outer covering is admitted, but not recommended, as seals do not adhere properly to it; if used, it is better to use it as an inside covering.

14. Letters and parcels not fulfilling the required conditions will not be insured.

15. As a further precaution it is recommended that in closing an envelope containing only paper enclosures, the flaps should be closed with paste as well as with seals, and that a needle and thread should be passed through the envelope and its contents, the knot of the thread being placed under the central seal: a specimen of an envelope closed in this manner can be seen at the Post Office.

Receipts and Acknowledgments to be signed by addressees.

16. The addressee of an insured letter or parcel must sign both the receipt and acknowledgment presented therewith, unless the outward appearance of the cover give rise to suspicion of tampering. In such case he should return the letter or parcel unopened, arranging with the Post Master to take delivery at the Post Office, the letter or parcel being opened there in the presence of the Post Master and its contents entered in an inventory which will be prepared in duplicate and must be signed by the addressee. One copy of the signed inventory will be forwarded by the Post Office to the sender, with the unsigned acknowledgment attached to it.

Value-Payable Parcels may be insured.

"Value-payable parcels," i. e., parcels the value of which is realized from the addressee and paid to the sender (see next Section) may also be insured; insurance however renders the prepayment of postage and the insurance fee compulsory. When a "value-payable parcel" is insured, the sender will receive from the Post Office two receipts, viz., a value-payable receipt and an insurance receipt.

VALUE-PAYABLE ARTICLES

(i. e., PARCELS AND REGISTERED BOOK PACKETS, but not Pattern Packets).

The following rules rates to value-payable articles :—

Parcels and Book Packets, how to be packed.

3. "Value-payable" parcels should be packed as ordinary parcels, and "value-payable" book packets should be packed in open covers, as prescribed for ordinary book packets in Section I. In both cases the sender is responsible for secure packing.

Rates of Commission.

4. The commission chargeable on payment to the sender of the value of the contents of a "value-payable" article will be as follows :—

Rs. As.		Rs. As.

	0 4		.. 0 4

and 4 annas additional for every additional 25 rupees or fraction thereof up to the limit of value (Rs. 600.)

Payment of value to sender loss Commission.

5. The commission will be deducted from the amount of the realized value when payment is made to the sender. Payment will be made by means of Money Orders. If a "value-payable" article is refused by the addressee, or from any cause is not delivered, payment of the value will not be made to the sender, and no claim will be made upon him, except for any unpaid postage which may have been originally due.

Postage Rates, &c., on Value-payable Articles.

6. Postage will be chargeable on "value-payable" parcels at the same rates as are chargeable on ordinary parcels, and it may be prepaid or otherwise at the option of the sender : prepayment of parcel postage can only be made in cash. The postage (at ordinary book packet rates) upon a "value-payable" registered book packet and the registration fee (two annas) must be prepaid by means of stamps.

Limits of Weight, Size, Value, &c.

7. The limit of weight (2,200 tolas) prescribed for ordinary parcels, as well as the conditions respecting size, &c., prescribed in Section I for ordinary parcels and ordinary book packets, will be applicable to "value-payable" articles. The value of the contents of a "value-payable" article may not exceed Rs. 600.

Payment of Value, &c., required prior to delivery.

8. The value of the contents of "value-payable" articles, together with any postage due, must be paid by the addressees before they are delivered.

Hours of Receipt of Value-Payable Articles.

9. "Value-payable" articles will be received at the window of the Post office during the hours fixed for receiving ordinary parcels, which, with a few exceptions, are from 7 to 8 A. M., and from noon to 5 P. M. They will not be received at all on Sundays, and they must be posted at least one hour before the time fixed for closing the mail with which they are to be despatched, otherwise they will be detained till the next despatch is made.

Particulars required from Senders.

10. "Value-payable" articles when presented at the Post Office window should be accompanied by a memorandum in the prescribed form (copies of which can be obtained at the Post Office) containing the following, viz :—

- Names and address of the addressee in full.
- Value of the contents recoverable from the addressee.
- Date of posting.

Description of Contents not necessary.

11. A description of the contents should not be given unless the sender desires to insure a "value-payable" parcel, in which case the insurance rules must be followed.

Mode of Delivery.

12. Intimation of the arrival of a "value-payable" article will be sent to the addressee; and on his presenting at the Post Office, either personally or by messenger, the receipt at foot of the intimation, duly signed, and tendering the amount of the value of the contents, together with any postage that may be due, the article will be delivered. The article should be carefully examined by the addressee or his messenger before it is received; and if there be any appearance of tampering, it should be brought to the notice of the Post Master, in whose presence, if necessary, it may be opened.

MONEY ORDERS

INLAND MONEY ORDERS—Applications for Money Orders.

1. All Post offices named in the list at the end of the Indian Postal Guide are authorized to issue and pay money orders, except such offices as may be exempted by the Director General of the Post Office from transacting money order business.

2. Post Offices shall be open for the transaction of money order business between the hours of 12 noon and 4 P.M. on every day except Sundays (Christmas Day, New Year's Day, the Queen's Birthday, and Good Friday). These hours may, under the authority of the Post Master General, be altered to suit local circumstances.

3. A separate application must be made for each money order. The application must be written on one of the printed forms supplied (gratis) by the Post Office for that purpose. A diagram of the form is given on the margin.

4. The name of only one person may be entered in the application as payee, and the name of only one person as remitter, except in the case of Firms or Corporations, whose usual designation must be given.

5. All the entries to be made in the application by the remitter (as indicated in the form) should be legibly written : and the name and address of the payee must be entered with such completeness as shall secure identification and avoid risk of wrong delivery. In the case of money orders deliverable in presidency and other chief towns, the name of the street and the number of the house in which the payee resides should invariably be given. The occupation, rank, trade or profession of the payee, and any other particular calculated to help in identifying him, should be added. The Post Office will not be responsible for any wrong delivery or payment resulting from, or facilitated by, indistinctness, inaccuracy or incompleteness of name or address, or any other defect in the application. The remitter should write his name and address as fully and clearly as possible in the space provided on the face of the acknowledgment, since on this information will depend in a great measure the prompt and correct delivery of the document. The entries in an application may be made by the remitter or any one employed on his behalf.

6. The application may be presented ready written at the Post Office, or it may be written at the Post Office. Where other facilities for getting applications written do not exist, the Post Office officials will ordinarily be able to write an application on behalf of a remitter who appears in person at the Post Office, or sends an intelligent messenger to the Post Office to give the necessary particulars.

Sender may attach a Post-Card to his Application.

7. The remitter may attach to his application a post-card, and a post-card so attached will be delivered with the money order : the post-card should bear the name and address of the payee on the appropriate side, the reverse side being available for any instructions or communication desired to be conveyed to the payee.

Presentation of applications.

8. Applications for money orders must be presented at the post office window. The remitter or his messenger, on presenting the application duly prepared together with the required amount (being the value of the money order and the commission chargeable thereon), will receive a receipt bearing the dated stamp of the post office and the signature of the postal official who receives the money. The receipt will contain particulars of the money order to be delivered to the payee and of his address ; and the remitter should examine the receipt with the view of seeing that the particulars have been correctly entered. Any error or omission should be pointed out at once by the remitter to the post office : and if he omits to do so, the responsibility of any mistake will rest with him.

An applicant for an inland money order may, if he so desires, present a receipt, ready written in a book, at the Post Office window with his application. In such cases the receiving officer will, after examining the receipt to see that the necessary particulars are given therein, write on the receipt the number as well as the total amount of money received, and stamp it with the Post Office stamp ; he will then date and sign the book, and return it to the applicant in lieu of furnishing him with the usual postal form of receipt. The object of this arrangement is to meet the convenience of persons applying for several money orders at the same time, who may wish to preserve receipts in the form of a book.

Transmission of Money Orders, and Acknowledgments by Addressees.

9. The remitter has nothing to do with the transmission of the money order, this work being done entirely by the Post Office, but in due course he should expect to receive, through the Post Office, an acknowledgment in testimony of the delivery of the money order to the payee. And if any unreasonable delay should occur in the receipt of this acknowledgment, he should represent the matter to the Post Office.

Delivery of Money orders, Signature of Receipts and Acknowledgments.

10. A money order will be delivered by the post office of the post town named in the address given by the remitter, and if necessary, it will be re-directed to a revised address within the limits of British India ; but no such re-direction can affect the office of payment as originally named by the remitter. A money order delivered by the post office to the payee will be accompanied by a receipt and an acknowledgment. The acknowledgment will be forwarded by the post office to the remitter.

Office of Payment to be mentioned on Money Orders.

11. On every money order, there will be entered the post office of payment mentioned by the remitter in his application. If the office of payment be a sole office its head office will likewise be entered and the order shall be payable at either office. A money order can be paid only at the office or offices named therein.

Money Orders not transferable : Payment, Lapsing, or forfeiture of Money Orders.

12. A money order is not transferable by endorsement : it must be signed by the payee named therein : and having been so signed, it may be presented for payment by the payee or any other legitimate holder. It should be presented at the post office of payment on as early a day as possible after receipt.

13. On the last day of the month succeeding that in which the money order was drawn it will lapse: a lapsed order will, however, be payable within two months from the date of its lapsing, if postage stamps equal in value to a second commission be affixed to the back of it. After the expiration of two months from the date of lapsing, the amount of the money order will be forfeited. Thus an unpresented money order bearing any date in June will lapse at the close of July and shall be forfeited at the close of September.

Signatures of Illiterate Payees.

14. In the case of an illiterate payee it will be necessary for him to attend personally at the Post Office to make his mark on the money order in presence of a witness who knows him and is known to the Post Office.

Applications for change of place of Payment.

15. If a payee desires to receive payment at a Post Office other than those named in the money order, he should sign the order and send it to the head office of payment named thereon, with an application for the issue to him of a fresh order payable to himself or any one else named by him at such office as he may specify. The application may be accompanied by an amount sufficient to pay a second commission equal to the commission charged on the original order, otherwise the second commission will be deducted from the amount of the fresh order. The Post Office which receives the letter of application and issues the fresh order will send a receipt direct by post to the applicant. Any legitimate holder of a money order duly signed by the payee may make the application herein referred to.

Return of Money Orders which cannot be delivered in British India.

16. A money order which cannot be delivered within the limits of British India will be forwarded by the post office free of charge to the remitter.

Undeliverable Money Orders: how they may be renewed.

17. A person to whom a money order issued on his own application has been returned by the post office as undeliverable, by reason of its being unclaimed or refused, may make application for a fresh order in the manner described in paragraph 15, except that the money order should be signed by him instead of the payee and that he must attach to his letter of application the receipt granted to him on his original application, or (if he has lost it) a duplicate obtained from the Post Office to which the original application was made. No second commission will be charged under this rule.

Duplicates of lost Money Orders.

18. If a money order is lost, application for a duplicate may be made by the payee or the remitter to the office of payment or its head office, accompanied by an amount equal to a second commission. It must be made in writing, and the post office shall require the applicant to furnish such particulars or evidence as may be deemed necessary to establish the claim. Such an application, if the office of payment be a sub-office, shall be submitted for orders to its head office. Second duplicates shall in no case be granted. If the application herein referred to is made by the remitter, he must attach to his application the original receipt or a duplicate thereof as provided in the preceding paragraph. A duplicate order shall bear the same date as the original, the dates of lapse and forfeiture being consequently the same. Discretionary authority shall be vested in offices of payment to stop payment of an order represented to have been lost pending the presentation of a formal application for a duplicate.

Right reserved to Post Office of paying a Money Order to Bearer.

19. The post office reserves the right of paying a money order to the bearer thereof and will not be responsible for the genuineness of the signature professing to be that of the payee, or for the legitimacy of the possession of the person presenting the order. The payee of a money order should, therefore, attend to its custody prior to presentation. After once making payment of a money order, by whomsoever presented, the post office is not liable to any further claim.

20. The remitter of a money order has the option of stopping delivery of the money order to the payee and requiring that the money order shall be delivered to himself.

Commission, Limits of Value, &c.

21. The following conditions are applicable to money orders granted by the Post Office, viz:—

(1) The value of a money order may not exceed Rs. 150 and may not include the fraction of an anna.

(2) The same remitter will not be allowed to obtain in one day money orders for a sum exceeding Rs. 600 in the aggregate drawn on the same office or payable to the same person, except under special permission conveyed to the issuing office by the Compiler of Post Office Accounts, Calcutta.

(3) The grant of money orders may be refused by any post office acting under special orders of the Compiler of Post Office Accounts, Calcutta, owing to an exceptional state of treasury balances, or any other special cause.

the applicant himself, or by some friend or agent on his behalf, it being undesirable to allow the officials of the Post Office to write such applications, except in cases of special necessity. The amount of the foreign money order (whatever be the foreign country of destination) must be stated by the applicant in the appropriate place in British (sterling) money. If the foreign country of destination has a different currency, the sterling amount will be converted by it into the local currency for the purpose of payment. The amount to be paid in India by the remitter for the money order (including the commission) will be entered by every head office on presentation of an application in which the value of the desired order has been stated in sterling money, and the applicant can then pay the amount indicated, obtaining a receipt on which further instructions will be found.

Applications through a Sub-Office submitted to its Head Office.

24. If the post office at which an application for a foreign money order is presented be a sub-office, it will be necessary for it to forward the application to its head office for examination, and in order to ensure the correct calculation of the amount payable for the order. On return from the head office the application will be delivered to the applicant, who may then present it accompanied by the required amount. In special cases important sub-offices may be exempted from this rule.

Particulars required on Applications.

25. In preparing an application for a foreign money order, the name of the payee or the person to whom the money order is made payable should include the surname and at least the initial letter of one Christian name. VIII.—British soldiers and non-commissioned officers are exempted, with retrospective effect, from the payment of any fee for the construction of masonry graves, or for the erection of monuments in burial grounds to the memory of their comrades, wives, or children. No monument, however, either regimental or private, shall exceed six square feet and no masonry grave shall occupy more ground than an area of eight feet by four. The simple stone slab or headstone should be generally adopted.

IX.—The Chaplain may at his discretion reduce or altogether remit, in cases of extreme poverty, the fee for searching registers and making copies, as well as the fee leviable on the construction of masonry graves, but not for the erection of monuments.

X.—The fees prescribed in these Rules should be paid to the Chaplain, or in the absence of the Chaplain, to the officer in charge of the burial ground, and shall be duly accounted for.

They also minister to the sick in the hospitals, and the afflicted inmates of the Leper Asylum and Alms House. One day in each week some of them go to visit the villages and towns around Calcutta. Besides these there are three Readers whose duty it is to read and explain the Scriptures to the domestics of European families.

The Association depends for its support upon the voluntary contributions of the Christian Public. Such contributions will be thankfully received by the Collectors, and also by any of the Members of the Committee.

MISSION OF THE LONDON MISSIONARY SOCIETY IN BENGAL.*

Its object is to preach the Gospel to the Natives, and to promote the Christian education of the Native youth of both sexes, to found and build up Native Christian Churches, and to educate Native Christian children. The principle of the London Missionary Society is to preach and teach the Gospel without reference to Sectarian peculiarities, leaving it to Converts to choose their own form of church Government. The Society's North Indian Missions are at Calcutta and the 24 Pergunnahs, Berhampore, Benares, Mirzapore, Singrowlee, Almora, and Raneekhet. It has fifteen European Missionaries in Bengal and the Upper-Provinces, five ordained Native Missionaries, eleven Native Churches, six English Churches, five Central Institutions with affiliated Schools for boys, and seventeen Schools for Native Girls.

The Missionaries of the London Society have usually been employed in preaching in the Vernacular to the Natives, and in educating the youth; they have also been engaged in translating the Scriptures, and in Christian literary labors.

The local pecuniary affairs of the Mission in Calcutta are managed by the Bengal Auxiliary to the London Missionary Society.

No. 10, Weston's lane.

Patroness—Her Excellency the Marchioness of Ripon.

Committee—Mrs Wagstaff, 1, Hungerford street; Mrs A Watkins, Elysium row; Mrs J B Knight, 4½, Esplanade; Miss Barry, Old Church Parsonage; Mrs E Symonds, 65, Bentinck street, and Mrs Jas. Sutherland, 10, Clive row.

Honorary Treasurer—E Lindstedt.

Honorary Secretary—Mrs E Lindstedt, 9, Clive row.

"The Women's Workshop" was established in 1869 for the purpose of affording employment to a class of women, chiefly of Portuguese origin, whose extreme poverty and low condition claim the sympathy and assistance of those who are in better circumstances.

The object of the Society is not so much charity, as to encourage habits of industry, and to enable those who are able and willing to work to earn an amount which will form an important addition to their small incomes.

At the same time, the rates charged for work are not higher than those usually paid to Native Durzees.

The workshop is self-supporting. The women are provided with a tiffin of Tea and Biscuits.

The daily attendance of women averages from 100 to 160. The hours of work are from ½ past 9 to 3.

It is hoped this statement of the objects and constitution of the Workshop, and the rates now quoted for work, will induce householders to aid the scheme. Orders for plain work will be especially welcome, as but a large number of women are incapable of doing work of a higher class.

All orders will be received and promptly attended to by the Superintendent at the Women's Workshop, 10, Weston's lane, and the Ladies of the Committee will be at all times ready to afford information to those who are interested in the Workshop and its objects.

RULES FOR GRANTS-IN-AID TO COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

1. A grant from provincial revenues is assigned by Government annually for each district, to be expended in grants-in-aid to Schools not under Government management provided they fulfil the conditions prescribed in the following rules.

2. Subject to approval and confirmation the district grant is distributed by the District Committee of Public Instruction to schools which are certified to be eligible under these rules, reference being had to the requirements of each locality as compared with others and to the funds disposable.

3. The District Committee will draw up at some meeting not later than the 15th January in each year a grant-in-aid budget for the next ensuing financial year showing

- (a) The current unexpired grants which will run on throughout the year in gross, the number of and total grants to schools of each class only being shown. If any such grants have been reduced on account of failure to comply with the conditions the fact should be noted.
- (b) The grants to expire during the ensuing year with detailed statement of renewed grants it is proposed to give and of reasons for which the Committee propose a renewed grant at the particular rate they may fix.
- (c) New grants which are to be made from the beginning of the ensuing year or on the expiry of the old grants with full details.

All renewals of grants which will expire during a year must be decided by the Committee before the beginning of each year and included in the grant-in-aid budget. All grants, whether new or renewed, must, for the future, terminate at the end of the financial year.

Every new grant proposed during the year must be reported specially with full information as above; such grants can be reported singly or together if more than one grant is given at a time.

A statement of all proposed grants must be submitted to the circle Inspector who may refer back to the Committee any case in which the grant is in his opinion given without due regard to the principles laid down by Government and may call for any information he may deem necessary. If the Inspector sees no objection, or if objecting the Committee on reconsideration adhere to their view, he will refer the grants with his own opinion for the orders of the Commissioner who may disallow any grants or may pass them. The grant statements passed by the Commissioner will be submitted to the Director for the final sanction of Government. It will be open to the Commissioner to permit the Inspector to dispose of ordinary grant-in-aid business and to refer for the orders of the Commissioner only those cases where there may be a difference of opinion between the Committee and the Inspector. The Director will publish annually in the Gazette a list of all new and renewed grants made in the annual budget of each district and he will publish quarterly statements of grants made during the year.

4. Any school to which aid is given together with all its accounts, books and other records shall be at all times open to inspection and examination by any officers appointed by the Government for the purpose; and to this end the records and accounts shall be placed in such custody that they will be always accessible on visit of any inspecting officer. Such inspection and examination shall have no reference to religious instructions, but only to secular education.

5. Inspecting officers will interfere as little as possible with the local management of schools, but are employed to see that the instruction is efficient, and that the conditions on which the grants were made are fulfilled; and aid will be withdrawn from any school in which such conditions are not fulfilled.

6. Grants are given on the principle of strict religious neutrality, and no preference will be shown to any school on the ground that any particular religious doctrines are taught or not taught therein.

7. Grants-in-aid will be made to such colleges and schools only (with the exception of normal schools) as require some fee however small from their scholars. Special exemption from this rule may be allowed by the District Committee subject to the orders of the Commissioner of the division, and of Government through the Director of Public Instruction, in the case of a middle, lower, girls' or special schools; provided that the education gratuitously given in such a school is confined to the children of the poor, that the endowment to which help is asked from the grant-in-aid fund is assured and permanent, and that proper machinery for managing the school is shown to exist. In the case of higher schools and colleges exception may be made by the authority of Government through the Director of Public Instruction provided that gratuitous instruction is confined to those who are unable to pay for higher education, and that those scholars only are selected who are qualified to profit by free education under rules approved by the Director.

8. The promoters or managers of any body by whom application for a grant is made must appoint a Secretary to conduct their correspondence with the District Committee and the Inspector, and they must record the names of the managers.

9. The managers are responsible for the due application of the school funds in accordance with the conditions of the grant.

10. In respect of any school for which application is made, full information must be supplied on the following points, and be thrown into the shape given in Form A* appended to these Rules:—

- (a) The pecuniary resources permanent and temporary on which the school will depend for support.
- (b) The proposed monthly expenditure in detail.
- (c) The average number of pupils to be instructed.
- (d) The persons who will form the Committee of Management.
- (e) The nature and course of instruction.
- (f) The fees which it is proposed by the managers to levy.
- (g) The number and salaries of the teachers.
- (h) The nature and amount of aid sought.
- (i) The treasury at which the grant is sanctioned is to be payable.
- (k) The existence of other schools of a similar class within a distance of six miles.

11. Application for grants-in-aid may be made either to the Inspector of the Circle or to the Secretary of the Local Committee. In the latter case the Secretary will register the application for the information of the Members of the Committee and will see whether it is so far as he can judge admissible under the rules. If it is he will forward it for the opinion of the Inspector. The Inspector will satisfy himself whether the application received by, or forwarded to him, is one which is admissible under the rules and, if so, he will certify that it is so, stating the class of school and the maximum grant to which it is admissible. He will also note his opinion of the merits of the application and he will forward it to the Secretary to the Committee with his certificate endorsed. The Secretary will then register the application as one certified to be admissible and such register shall be open to the inspection of the Members of the Committee and shall be produced for their consideration on the next occasion on which grants are assigned.

12. Grants shall in no case exceed in amount the sums to be expended from private sources except in special cases under special orders of Government. Expenditure from school fees and from municipal contributions will be reckoned as expenditure from private sources.

13. Aided places of instruction are divided into the following classes:—

Colleges:—In which students who have passed the University Entrance Examination are educated in the University Course or any part of it.

Higher Schools:—In which students are educated up to the standard of the Entrance Examination.

Ordinarily, renewed grant will be considerably below the maximum allowed under rules 14-18, and the grant to a school should grow smaller and smaller on such renewal. In this way money will from time to time be set free, and the Committee will be able to aid new schools even though their grant-in-aid allotment remains stationary.

When a grant is submitted for sanction a statement of the proposed establishment of the school will also be submitted for insertion in the Director's authorisation of the grant.

21. The sanction of a grant is conveyed in the following :*

(3.) After countersignature the bill will be paid at the _____ treasury.

(4.) The monthly bills and the certified abstract of the school accounts must be signed by the Secretary of the School.

(5.) The bill is countersigned on the distinct understanding that the salaries and other charges certified by the Secretary to have been paid have actually been paid.

(6.) Contingent charges are to be counted for in detail.

(7.) Salaries for service in any month become due on the first day of the following month.

* In the case of Colleges the form is modified.

- (8.) The grant is liable to be reduced or withdrawn if the payment of any teacher's salary is delayed for more than two months after it has become due.
- (9.) The grant is liable to be reduced or withdrawn if the school is unfavourably reported on as regards the attendance of proficiency and the scholars.
- (10.) The grant is liable to be reduced or withdrawn if the managers employ ill-qualified masters or if they keep their accounts in a negligent and untrustworthy manner, or if they send up incorrect accounts, or if they fail to transmit punctually the periodical returns required by the Educational Department, or if the school house is unfit for the purposes of the school or is untidy or dirty.
- (11.) The grant is liable to be reduced or withdrawn if the teachers keep untidy or untrustworthy registers, or if they are frequently absent from duty.
- (12.) Holidays are not to exceed sixty days in the year exclusive of Sundays, except under peculiar circumstances and with the sanction of the District Committee.
- (13.) Every new election to the Committee of Management must be notified to the District Committee, under the signatures of the Secretary and of the member or members elected.
- (14.) Every change of Secretary must be notified to the Inspector under signatures of the new Secretary and the members of the Committee of Management.

SPECIAL GRANTS.

21. Special grants are given towards the cost of furnishing school-houses and providing maps and other school apparatus, in consideration of expenditure from private sources incurred in the establishment and equipment of schools, and on condition that the Managers undertake to refund the amount of any such grant, if the school obtaining it should be abolished within a period to be fixed by the Director of Public Instruction.
22. Special grants are given towards the cost of building school-houses provided such houses are pucca masonry structures.
23. Grants are not given to pay off debts for building, nor in consideration of former expenditure for building, nor for the maintenance of buildings.
24. Before a building grant is sanctioned, the site, plans, estimates, specifications, title and trust deed must be approved by the Commissioner of the division.
25. The trust deed must declare the building to be granted in trust for school purpose and for no other purposes whatever. It must also provide for the legal ownership of the premises, for the proper maintenance of the building, and for the inspection and management of the school.
26. The grant is not paid until—

- (1.) A report is received from the Executive Engineer, Department of Public Works, certifying that the building has been completed in accordance with the sanctioned plans and specifications; and
- (2.) A certificate is received from the managers setting forth that the funds in their hands will, when added to the grant, be sufficient to meet all claims and finally close the account.

SPECIAL RULE FOR BACKWARD DISTRICTS.

27. In the district mentioned in the Rule 17 the District Committee may if they cannot usefully spend their grant-in-aid allotment in the manner provided by the foregoing rules, propose through the Commissioner schemes for encouraging aided schools—

CALCUTTA HIGH SCHOOL.

No. 11, Chowringhee Lane.

The above School was opened on the 1st February, 1877, and is conducted by Mr H Roberts, Fellow, Calcutta University, late Principal and Professor of English Literature and History, Doveton College, and for several years one of the Examiners of the University.

The curriculum of studies, partly based on the University Entrance standard, and embracing English, Classics and Mathematics, is intended to lay the foundation of sound scholarship, and to train boys for the general business of life. There are optional classes for Music, Drawing, French, &c., taught after School hours, at a small extra charge.

The Boarding Department is under the personal superintendence of Mr. Roberts, assisted by Mrs Roberts and a resident European Serjeant. The food, health, and comforts of the boys as well as their moral and religious training, are carefully attended to.

The moderate scale of charges adopted, places the benefits of a sound and liberal education within the reach of a large section of the community, and the rapid growth of the School may be taken as an indication of its having supplied a long felt public want.

This Asylum for indigent Christian children was originally formed by the union of the Free School Society and the Old Charity School, and its present locality in Free School street was secured in 1794, by purchase of the property from Mr. Baretto. Improvements have been made from time to time; the present spacious building was erected in 1854. In 1830 Bishop Turner suggested the expediency of placing the School under clerical superintendence; and the Church on the premises called St. Thomas' Church was then erected and consecrated by Bishop Wilson in 1834.

The benefits of this Charity are not confined to the poor of Calcutta; indigent children being received from all parts of India. The Governing Body twice in the year (February and August) elect scholars on the foundation. Every subscriber to the fund has the privilege of recommending destitute children for election, and a bonus of Rs. 250 will secure a nomination to a free scholarship as vacancies arise.

Pupils are not received under 5 or over 10 years of age, nor are they permitted, unless they become pupil Teachers, to remain after attaining the age of 17.

When a child is not withdrawn by his guardian, the Governors provide him with a home, employment, and apprentice allowance.

Pupils from the advanced classes sit for the University Entrance Examination every year, but the Governors' aim is not so much to encourage exceptional ability, as to give all the children a sound elementary education adapted to their probable position and requirements on leaving. Industrial departments are attached to both the boys' and girls' schools. In 1847 the average number of Scholars was 266 and the whole list of pupils (Day Pupils and Boarders) 367.

Applications for admission should be addressed to the Honorary Secretary.

Secretary.—Charles J. Gray, Kidderpore. Medical Officer.—_____. Lady Superintendent, Mrs. Colquhoun Grant. Matron, Mrs. P. Empson.

The Upper School of the Military Orphan Society is now a Government Institution, supported chiefly by the contributions of the Officers of the Bengal Army, and restricted to the reception of their orphans.

The Society was projected in 1782 by Major-General Kirkpatrick. A proposal for its establishment was circulated to the Officers of the Army in August 1782, which was cordially agreed to with scarcely a single exception. The first meeting of the Society was held on the 29th of March 1783.

The objects of the Society, as stated in the original proposals and as ever since acted upon, are to provide fixed funds or resources for the maintenance of the children of deceased Officers; to relieve Officers from the burden of contributing to private subscriptions in behalf of individual orphans; and in the hour of sickness and of danger to yield them the consolation that in the event of their dying poor, a certain provision would be secured to their offspring.

LOWER ORPHAN SCHOOL.

Superintendent—Charles J. Gray, Kidderpore. Medical Officer—Dr. J. Jones.

Head Mistress—Mrs. G. E. MacLeod.

The Lower School of the Military Orphan Society is a public Institution, wholly supported and ruled by Government, and solely intended to receive and educate the children of European Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers attached to the Bengal Establishment. The Lower School was constituted by Government in May 1783, and sanctioned by the Court of Directors on the 24th of February 1786.

The objects of the School are to encourage the European Soldier to enter in the marriage state; to relieve him from the heavy burden of rearing a large offspring with very scanty means, and by the comfortable maintenance and education of his children to attach him to the service by ties which did not previously exist; to rescue the children themselves from the vices and intemperance of the barracks, and having saved them from profligacy, distress, and premature decay, to render them useful members of the community by rearing them up in the principle of the Christian religion, and by educating and respectfully setting them up in life. -

The concerns of the Institution are administered by a body of Managers, styled the Standing Committee, and the Controller of Military Accounts.

Course of Education—The object of this Institution is to open to the Catholic youth a full course of liberal education, by training up their hearts to virtue, and adorning their minds with every useful knowledge. Nevertheless, pupils of other religious persuasions are also admitted.

As learning without education, properly so called, is far from sufficient to satisfy the wishes of parents for the happiness of their children, unceasing care is taken to form the character of the pupils, to inspire them with a love of religion and morality, to accustom them to gentlemanly manners, to habits of cleanliness and order; in short to prepare them for the various duties of after-life. Day and night they are under the constant supervision of their Masters.

The course of studies embraces all the branches up to the M A Degree, viz:—

I.—The English language, as the most important and primary requisite, with frequent exercise in composition and elocution.

II.—The Latin language, as leading either to the University degrees or to a thorough knowledge of English.

III.—Bengali, Urdu, Persian, French and Sanskrit.

IV.—History, Sacred and Profane; Geography, Physical and Commercial, the Use of the globes, and the Elements of Astronomy.

V.—Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Algebra, Geometry, and Trigonometry.

VI.—Higher Mathematics, Logic, Natural, Mental and Moral Philosophy, Astronomy, Chemistry, and Natural History.

A Lower or Infant School is opened to younger pupils that are not sufficiently advanced to enter the First Year's Class.

A Museum or collection of specimens and instruments to illustrate Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, &c., is being gradually established. Donations for its development will be gratefully accepted and inscribed with the name of the Donor.

Three times a year parents are informed of the conduct, improvement, diligence, and health of their children. They may visit them on the days and at the hours fixed by the rules. No other visitors will be introduced to them without the express permission of the parents. Boarders allowed to go out on the appointed monthly holidays, are expected back at 8 o'clock p. m., and whether on going out or returning, they must be accompanied by their parents or some persons authorised by them.

FOR EDUCATING CHILDREN OF INDIGENT FREEMASONS.

Registered under Act XXI of 1860.

INSTITUTED IN 1860.

President:—Hon H. T. Prinsep, D. G. M.

This Association is supported by capitation assessment from the Lodges in the District of Bengal and by voluntary contributions.

1. A donation of Rs. 500, made in one or more payments of not less than Rs. 50 each, constitutes the donor a Vice-President, with the privilege of five votes.

2. A donation of Rs. 100 constitutes the donor a Governor for Life, with the privilege of one vote, and one vote for each additional donation of Rs. 100.

3. Subscription of Rs. 16 per annum entitles the subscriber to one vote, and an extra vote for every additional Rs. 16.

4. The conditions of the above are the same, whether the donor or subscriber be an individual, or a Lodge, Chapter, or other Society.

5. A general meeting of subscribers is held twice in the year, viz., on the 1st Wednesday in the months of June and December, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

6. The general conduct of the affairs of the Association is entrusted to a Committee composed of the President, Vice-Presidents, and Life Governors, which meets on the 1st Wednesday in every month, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

7. The funds of the Association are devoted solely to the board and education of children.

8. Children are admitted into the Association at the age of 6 years, and continue therein till they have attained the age of 16 years.

This rule applies equally to children of both sexes, without any distinction of religious denomination.

9. Elections take place at each general meeting of subscribers, according to the number of vacancies and capabilities of the fund.

10. No child is eligible to be placed on the list of candidates unless his (or her) father has been a registered Mason for five years, and a subscribing member of some Lodge for at least three years of that period.

Subscriptions are received by the District Grand Secretary and by the Secretary to the Association, 9, Old Post Office street.

C., and 5, Hastings' Street, Calcutta.The Company was formed for the purpose of taking over the Concessions granted for constructing and working Tramways in Calcutta and its suburbs.Calcutta is the metropolis of India, the most important and the wealthiest city in Asia. Including Howrah on the western side of the River Hooghly, and two separate Municipalities on the eastern bank, the population, as returned by the Census of 1872, was 892,429. In the same year its Maritime trade amounted to 52½ millions sterling, of which the exports formed 31½ millions, and the imports 20½ millions—showing an excess of exports over imports of 11 millions sterling.The Tramways authorised are shown upon a map which may be obtained at the Company's Office. They will pass through the principal streets of the City, bringing the suburbs and all the business quarters into communication with each other, and with the central portions of the town. They pass the Law Courts, Post, and Telegraph Offices, Custom House, Governor-General's residence, the Government Offices, and other principal public buildings, and connect the important station of the Eastern Bengal Railway at Sealdah with the centre of the town, and with the Bridge and Ferry to Howrah where is situated the terminus of the East Indian Railway.Station facilities have been acquired contiguous to the railway platforms of the Eastern Bengal Railway, at which large numbers of passengers daily arrive and depart, by which arrangement the traffic of both Companies will be greatly facilitated. The streets being perfectly level, the cars will for the most part be worked by one horse, but by the terms of the Concession mechanical power (subject to the approval of the authorities) may also be used, which will be found to be a valuable adjunct for the morning and evening traffic, and to provide for the greatly increased travel of the frequently recurring holiday and festival seasons.

About 8 miles of the Tramway have been completed and equipped and the Sealdah Line is in actual and profitable operation, so that the Capital invested will be immediately remunerative.

The Rifle Corps is composed of effective and Honorary Members.

Effective Members are required to attend 9 drills each year, 6 of which must be drills of the whole Battalion. They must also possess a competent knowledge of Squad and Company drill, including the Manual and Firing exercises, skirmishing in Company and Musketry drill. Recruits must attend 30 drills (Squad, Company, Battalion and Musketry) to become effective.

Every Volunteer must be present at the Annual Inspection of the Corps, unless absent with the sanction of the Commanding Officer, and fire 60 rounds in class firing.

Honorary Members are not required to undergo any Drill.

Honorary Members must contribute Rs. 24 annually and are allowed the privilege of using the Rifle Range for practice, of wearing the uniform of a Private of the Corps, and of purchasing ammunition at cost price.

A Capitation grant of Rs. 20 is allowed annually by Government for every Member who has made himself effective by attending the prescribed number of drills, and an extra efficiency allowance of Rs. 10 for every Volunteer who during that season passes out of the 3rd class at Target practice. This allowance is devoted to providing uniform which is issued free, and to certain other specific purposes laid down by Government.

The Regimental Rifle Ranges are situated at Ballygunge, 2 miles from Calcutta, and extends to 1,000 yards.

The Ballygunge Range is furnished with an improved system of sliding targets, which admits of the shot marks being obliterated after each shot, and also of an indicator being fixed to shew the exact position of each hit, without exposure of the men marking. This range is also an excellent one in other respects, and being conveniently near to Calcutta, affords opportunities for rifle practice, such as no other place in India and few at home can boast.

The Regiment is now connected with the National Rifle Association. The silver medal of the Association is competed for annually by first-class shots in class firing of the season.

The Regiment receives the "Volunteer Service Gazette," the official organ of the Volunteer Force throughout the world. The Gazette is filed at Head Quarters for the perusal of Members of the Corps.

The general business of the Corps is managed by a General Committee composed of Members from each Company, elected annually at the commencement of each season.

The days for drills and parades are fixed at the commencement of each season and intimation of the arrangements for each week is published in the Daily Papers on the Saturday morning previous.

Gentlemen wishing to join the Corps should apply to Head-Quarters where every information can be obtained.

The C. V. R. Club at 6, Lindsay street, is open to all effective members at a monthly subscription of Rs. 3 for Officers; Re. 1 for Sergeants, and 8 annas for other Members. In the Reading Room will be found the daily Indian and weekly English Papers. A Billiard Room and Canteen are attached to the Club.
